FY 2025-2026 Annual Action Plan and FY 2026-2027 Community Support Grant Amendments

Housing and Community Development Department

Shirletta Best, Community Services Administrator

March 17, 2026

Background

- August 5, 2025 – Council approved the FY 2025-2026 Annual Action Plan
  - HUD approval received in September 2025
  - $321,000 of CDBG funds (2019-2022)
    - $40,000 to Community Lifeline Center
  - Included microenterprise, façade improvements, workforce development (job training/job creation), and small business support as eligible activities

McKINNEY TEXAS
Unique by nature.

Proposed FY 2025-2026 Annual Action Plan Amendments

Grant Year	Available Funds	Current Allocation	Proposed Amendment
2019	$1,035.57	$1,035.57	-
2020	$8,417.10 (CDBG-CV)	-	$$8,417.10
2021	$227,316.44	$227,316.44	-
2022	$495,283.99	$92,647.99	$402,636.00
Total	$732,053.10	$321,000.00	$711,053.31

- CDBG Financial Amendments:
  - Reallocate the remaining $402,636.00 of approved grant funds for eligible uses
  - Reallocate the remaining $8,417.10 of CDBG-CV funds to Wellness Center for Older Adults
- CDBG Program Amendments:
  - Expand the Housing Rehabilitation Program to include subrecipients
- CSG Financial Amendment:
  - Transfer the $40,000 awarded to Community Lifeline Center to The Samaritan Inn

McKINNEY TEXAS
Unique by nature.

Proposed FY 2026-2027 Community Support Grant Amendment

- Add a Nonprofit Capacity Building program
  - Use of funds may include:
    - Leadership and Governance Development
    - Strategic Planning
    - Evaluation and Financial Capacity
    - Technology and Data Security
    - Collaborative Learning for Best Practices
    - Training and Education
  - Fund development and general administrative activities, not eligible
  - Up to $75,000 available for one ore more non-profits

McKINNEY TEXAS
Unique by nature.

McKinney Nonprofit Grants

New Updates & More Opportunities

Apply for multiple grants, including Transit, Community Development Block Grant (CDBG), and updated Community Support Grant funding.

Grants are awarded to eligible organizations that support McKinney residents with:

- Basic and community needs, including food, clothing, education, housing, and shelter
- Counseling, safety, and mental health
- Housing support, infrastructure, transit services, and much more!

Applications accepted
March 3 - April 3, 2026

Optional information sessions:

IN-PERSON: Feb. 27 at 10:30 a.m.
McKinney City Hall, 401 E Virginia St.

VIRTUAL: March 3 • 10:30 a.m.
Registration required
Email ConsolidatedGrants@McKinneytexas.org

McKINNEY TEXAS
Unique by nature.

To apply or learn more, visit
McKinneyTexas.org/Grants

McKINNEY TEXAS
Unique by nature.