I. Applying Organization: Collin County History Museum

Mission

The mission of the Collin County History Museum (CCHM) is to preserve and honor the past, connect with the present, and embrace the future. We are committed to the collection and preservation of the rich heritage and history of the people and events that helped shape McKinney and Collin County.

Strategic Goals and Objectives

We fulfill the mission of the organization through the following goals:^{[[L]]}_{[[SEP]]}

- 1) To preserve and protect our cultural history for future generations:^{[[L]]}_{[[SEP]]}
- 2) To disseminate historical information through our museum collections, archives, research library, and publications
- 3) To promote resources and educational programs that highlight the history of Collin County and Texas and their contributions to our nation:^{[[L]]}_{[[SEP]]}
- 4) To improve intellectual and physical access to our information and museum collections:^{[[L]]}_{[[SEP]]}
- 5) To leverage new technology resources to engage visitors in a meaningful way

Scope of Services

CCHM is an archival museum with historical artifacts, photographs, documents, diaries, manuscripts, historical maps, archival newspapers, and land records that provide valuable research information for genealogists, historians, authors, teachers and students. The museum has a library collection of books dedicated to Collin County and Texas History. Docents also provide interactive educational programming for students across Collin County.

Day to Day Operations

The museum is free and open to the public Thursdays, Fridays, and Saturdays from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Private tours and interactive school tours can be scheduled Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. Special events are held throughout the year.

II. Promotional Grant

Project Overview

The CCHM is seeking grant funding from MCDC for advertising and marketing to promote attendance for 2022 and the final year of the McKinney Then and Now exhibit. The exhibit launched in February 2019 and has been extended through December 2022 due to unprecedented closure due to the pandemic. The exhibit gives visitors the opportunity to step back in time and experience what life was like in the early days of McKinney. Historic photos, artifacts and set designs of historic buildings tell the stories of diverse businesses that made up the downtown from the late 1800's through the 1950's. Historic images are paired with the views of the same scenes as they appear today or a similar business that is currently in McKinney. Visitors to the exhibit hear the stories about early McKinney told from historical newspaper articles written by historian Bill Haynes and through the Historical Vignettes columns of historians Roy and Helen Hall. The vignettes were published in the McKinney Examiner and Courier Gazette telling the stories of the places, people and events that helped shape McKinney.

To address closure due to Covid, the Collin County History Museum installed an outdoor exhibit space in 2020, which is always available to patrons and visitors to McKinney.

Scope of Project

Through the years, McKinney has been transformed from a pioneer town, to a thriving farming community, to the vibrant town we enjoy today. Every year thousands of people visit McKinney and enjoy the vintage charm and intrigue of the historical buildings that make up the downtown square. Through our exhibit, visitors are able to compare for themselves McKinney Then and Now.

The Collin County History Museum will use promotional grant money to purchase advertising in newspapers and magazines, in both digital and print format. We will purchase (6) ¼ page print ads, promoting the McKinney Then and Now exhibit, in Celebration Magazine which distributes approximately 180,000 printed copies annually to Collin, Dallas, and southern Denton counties, adding 500 to 1,000 new subscribers every issue. Celebration Magazine will also distribute advertising for our exhibit through (5) dedicated email blasts, with information about our exhibit, to their 75,000 subscribers and 5,400 Facebook followers. The magazine features a partnership listing of the museum on their website. A digital copy of the magazine is also available online on the Celebration website. Our museum writes feature articles in each of the editions of the magazine where advertising has been purchased. In doing so, we are able to draw interest to McKinney through the article. We will continue to submit articles for 2022 Celebration Magazine publications.

The museum will participate in five virtual “Explore and Tour” Zoom events in 2022 hosted by Celebration Magazine. These virtual programs attract as many as 450 participants each, drawing national attention to McKinney and the Collin County History Museum. The Zoom events are recorded, and following the live broadcast, are uploaded to YouTube where they continue to promote all that McKinney and the Collin County History Museum have to offer.

McKinney and the Collin County History Museum were featured in 2019 on the Daytripper television series on PBS. Through a partnership with the Daytripper, the Collin County History Museum will capitalize on the exposure created by the series. Social Media is a rapidly evolving landscape, and the Daytripper reaches over 187,000 Texas travelers with each post. By utilizing the advertising services of the Daytripper, it is the goal of the museum to draw travelers from all over Texas to McKinney to visit our McKinney Then and Now exhibit.

Included in our budget are printed materials that are distributed at the MPAC, MCVB, and area hotels. With prior MCDC grant funding, the museum purchased a sandwich board sidewalk sign, and our budget reflects the cost of new sign inserts to spotlight special events at the museum like our annual Living History Day and Artist Paint-Out. Further, the museum would like to purchase “feather flags” to draw wind powered attention to events at the museum.

Promotional Goals of the McKinney Then and Now Exhibit

- Promote heritage tourism in McKinney
- Collaborate and form partnerships with downtown businesses to attract visitors to the museum exhibit and to other businesses in McKinney
- Collaborate with McKinney Convention and Visitor Bureau for advertising opportunities and correlate downtown events with the McKinney Then and Now exhibit
- Host lectures, events, and promote activities to attract patrons and promote the rich heritage of McKinney
- Utilize technology tools to create and promote engaging and interactive exhibits that tell the history of McKinney

Promotional Objectives^[SEP]

Describe how the proposed project fulfills the strategic goals for your organization. ^[SEP]

- Promote heritage tourism in McKinney
 - Strategic Goal 1) To preserve and protect our cultural history for future generations
- Utilize technology tools to create and promote engaging and interactive exhibits that tell the history of McKinney
 - Strategic Goal 5) To leverage new technology resources to engage visitors in a meaningful way
 - Strategic Goal 2) To disseminate historical information through our museum collections, archives, research library and publications
- Host lectures, events, and promote activities to attract patrons and promote the rich heritage of McKinney
 - Strategic Goal 3) To promote resources and educational programs that highlight the history of Collin County and Texas and their contributions to our nation
 - Strategic Goal 4) To improve intellectual and physical access to our information and museum collections

Target Audience: The McKinney Then and Now exhibit is free to the public three days a week. It appeals to all age groups and organizations.

Attendance: Before closures due to Covid, the McKinney Then and Now exhibit consistently attracted approximately 7,500 visitors annually. Weekly attendance has slowly been returning to normal following the pandemic.

On average, hundreds of visitors walk through the doors of the Collin County History Museum weekly. They come from all across Collin County, Texas, the United States and other countries. The museum offers visitors a unique place to learn and explore. It is one of the last free activities in the historic downtown area, especially for children and families. Many groups come to the museum as their primary destination for tourism, and afterward spend time exploring the historic downtown, to shop and have a meal. It is important that a town the size of McKinney, offer tourists a variety of opportunities for enjoyment and entertainment. The funding from the MCDC promotional grant will provide promotional materials and advertising to help attract people to all that McKinney has to offer.

Promotional Schedule: To help attract visitors, the museum has established a schedule of monthly promotional events. (See McKinney Then and Now 2022 Events and Programming attachment)

Exhibit Expansion: The McKinney Then and Now exhibit will conclude in December of 2022 to make way for an all new exhibit in 2023. We hope that through continuing promotional advertising, we are establishing a reputation for quality exhibits. It is our goal that visitors schedule a return to McKinney, and to the museum for future exhibits.

McKinney City Council and McKinney Community Development Goals supported by the proposed Project:

- Eligible for MCDC consideration under Sections 501 to 505 of the Texas Local Government Code (refer to MCDC Grant Guidelines)
- Support cultural, sports, fitness, entertainment, community projects and events that attract resident and visitor participation and contribute to quality of life, business development and growth of McKinney sales tax revenue
- Highlight and promote McKinney as a unique destination for residents and visitors alike

Overview of Alignment with goals and strategies adopted by McKinney City Council and McKinney Community Development by the proposed Project:

The CCHM is a 501(c)(3) and is eligible for MCDC consideration for grant funding. The McKinney Then and Now exhibit meets the goals and strategies adopted by the

McKinney City Council and MCDC in the following ways: ^[1]_{SEP}

- Because the museum is located just one block east of the historic downtown square, hundreds of visitors attending the exhibit contribute to the growth of the McKinney sales tax revenue by shopping and eating in the downtown square.
- The museum is a Texas Historic Landmark and offers a unique destination not only for the enjoyment of the museum exhibit but visitors also enjoy the historic architectural features of the building.

Has a request for funding for this Promotional Event been submitted to MCDC in the past?

Date(s): Nov 2020

II. Financial

Overview of CCHM Financial Status

The CCHM has been able to continue to increase our financial resources for our monthly budget expenditures. The Board of Directors has focused on building collaborative relationships and partnerships with historical organizations, McKinney organizations and businesses, and the Collin County Historical Commission. Through these collaborative relationships and partnerships, we have seen an increase in donations, memberships and financial support for the museum. We have sought grant awards through various community and historical organizations to continue to fund projects that keep us connected to and involved in the community.

Our financial statements are not audited, but are professionally prepared and reviewed by Nabors CPA Services, Wayne Nabors, Certified Public Accountant.

IV. Marketing and Outreach

The CCHM will utilize the following marketing plans and outreach strategies:

- Submit advertising to newspapers and magazines in both print and digital formats as outlined in the grant narrative.
- Post promotional events on the Collin County History Museum website.
- Utilize Google Analytics Statistics from museum webpage.
- Work with MCVB to include the museum in tour groups visiting McKinney.
- Continue to post McKinney Then and Now Videos to YouTube.
- Distribute email communication to schools and colleges in Collin County.
- Utilize social media by postings on Twitter and Facebook accounts.
- Submit articles for publication in newspapers and magazines.
- Attend Marketing Events through Celebration Magazine, Collin College, and McKinney

V. Metrics to Evaluate Success

The museum collects attendance data for our exhibits through Google Forms. We track the number of adults and children that visit, along with their city and state. There is also a place to submit visitor feedback and comments. All statistics will be shared in the final report.

We utilize Google Analytics for our Collin County History Museum website. This tool has a number of features that generate detailed statistics that allow us to review how well users are interacting with our website and content. This tool helps us know how visitors find our website, what pages they click on while on the site and how they click through the site. We can track the demographics of visitors to the website as well as what device they use to access our museum website.

We also feel successful as we see an increase in the number of museum partnerships that are established. We work with McKinney CVB to schedule tour groups visiting our city. We also have established relationships with Collin College history professors, such as Joe Jaynes, former Collin County Commissioner. For the past two years professors have encouraged students to attend the museum exhibits by incorporating it into class projects. We have had hundreds of students bring their families from all around Collin, Denton and Dallas counties as part of this history project.

We feel that the promotion of the Collin County History Museum's McKinney Then and Now exhibit has been a success when we continue to see the number of visitors increase. We also evaluate our success when we continue to see visitors come from all over the county, state, nation, and world.

Dear Applicant:

Based on information supplied, and assuming your operations will be as stated in your application for recognition of exemption, we have determined you are exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

We have further determined that, as indicated in your application, you are a private foundation within the meaning of section 509(a) of the Code. In this letter, we are not determining whether you are an operating foundation as defined in section 4942(j)(3).

If your purposes, character, or method of operation change, please let us know so we can consider the effect of the change on your exempt status. Also, you should inform us of all changes in your name or address.

As of January 1, 1984, you are liable for taxes under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (social security taxes) on remuneration of $100 or more you pay to each of your employees during a calendar year. You are not liable for the tax imposed under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act (FUTA). However, since you are a private foundation, you are subject to excise taxes under Chapter 42 of the Code. You also may be subject to other Federal excise taxes. If you have any questions about excise, employment, or other Federal taxes, please let us know.

Donors may deduct contributions to you as provided in section 170 of the Code. Bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts to you or for your use are deductible for Federal estate and gift tax purposes if they meet the applicable provisions of sections 2055, 2106, and 2522 of the Code.

You are required to file Form 990-PF, Return of Private Foundation or Section 4947(a)(1) Trust Treated as a Private Foundation. Form 990-PF must be filed by the 15th day of the fifth month after the end of your annual accounting period. The law late, unless there is reasonable cause for the delay.

You are not required to file Federal income tax returns unless you are subject to the tax on unrelated business income under section 511 of the Code. If you are subject to this tax, you must file an income tax return on Form 990-T, Exempt Organization Business Income Tax Return. In this letter, we are not determining whether any of your present or proposed activities are unrelated trade or business as defined in section 513 of the Code.

You need an employer identification number even if you have no employees. If an employer identification number was not entered on your application, a number will be assigned to you and you will be advised of it. Please use that number on all returns you file and in all correspondence with the Internal Revenue Service.

Because this letter could help resolve any questions about your exempt status and private foundation status, you should keep it in your permanent records.

If you have any questions, please contact the person whose name and telephone number are shown in the heading of this letter.

Sincerely yours,

Glenn Cagle
District Director
