Mayor Fuller called for Council and Manager Comments.

Council Member Philips stated that he received a call from an attorney that works Downtown McKinney regarding how friendly and helpful the construction workers were being to citizens Downtown. Council Member Philips congratulated the staff that made the selection to hire the construction company. Council Member Philips also mentioned that the City of McKinney's Fire Department has been on the News on their response to the wild fires in California and Hurricane Laura; Philips stated that he is proud that our Firefighters are not only serving McKinney, but the entire Nation. Council Member Philips spoke about what was happening in the Throckmorton Ad Hoc Advisory Board and that he is proud of the open, honest, and frank conversations that they are having in their meetings. Council Member Philips also informed the Council that Highschool Football is starting back.

Council Member Elliott thanked Derrick and Ceretha Robinson of Alliance for Elite Youth Leadership (AEYL). Community Lifeline Center and AEYL held a joint event to give food to the Community. The event provided food for nine hundred (900) families and handed out sixty thousand (60,000) pounds of food. Council Member Elliott also informed the Council that they will hold another event on September 26th.

Council Member Shemwell stated that he appreciates the work that that has been put in to lead in the right direction. Council Member Shemwell stated that a lawsuit has been filed due to the rectifying of the City's Charter Amendments regarding the Recall election. Council Member Shemwell hopes that the City will do the right thing by the voters and constituents of District 1.

Council Member Frazier thanked Wendy Gallagher, the Staff, McKinney Chamber, and the McKinney Alumni that hosted the City's September 11th Memorial for all the thought and effort that they put into it. Council Member Frazier urged citizens to complete the 2020 Census if they have not already done so and to remember election day of November 3rd. Council Member Frazier thanked the McKinney Firefighters that have assisted with the wildfires in California. Council Member Frazier tasked citizens to shop and eat in McKinney.

City Manager Paul Grimes gave the following announcements:

- Octoberfest this year will be different, it will be Park-toberfest and you can get tickets online at mckinneytexas.org/octoberfest

- You can see the City's performance measures on the City's website under Transparency and under the tab Performance.

Mayor Pro Tem Rogers read a note from Jim Lassiter about how he left and was injured in a parking lot; Jim was appreciative that multiple people stopped to help him while waiting for the ambulance. Mayor Pro Tem Rogers followed the note with that McKinney is a great place to live and it is the people that make McKinney is a great place. Mayor Pro Tem Rogers also stated that he saw on the News that other Police Departments are starting programs like Coffee with Cops. Mayor Pro Tem Rogers is proud that our Police Department has been running the program for years while other Cities are just now starting.

Mayor Fuller reiterated the comments made by Council Member Frazier on the City's September 11th Memorial. Mayor Fuller thanked everyone involved and commended them on their effort. The team that ran the event placed almost three thousand (3000) American Flags in the ground for every life lost on September 11th, 2001. Mayor Fuller stated that he will uphold law and order as long as he is in office. Mayor Fuller also stated that he is striving to create an open dialogue with groups in the City.

Mayor Fuller adjourned the meeting at 7:48 p.m.
