RE-IMAGINE UPDATE

UPPER EAST SIDE JUVINILE AREA!

We have moved all the Young Adult, Midgrade and Juvenile Fiction upstairs. We have also begun work on cutting down the height of the shelving units.

- ✓ Creates more space for activities
- ✓ Beginning to create a comfortable location for the youth and parents.

WHAT'S NEXT

- ✓ Finish installing the wooden end panels.
- ✓ Continue cutting shelving units to 66"

SRP Refresh!

Due to the increased activity during SRP Marci and Laura worked a plan to have a refresh of many of the most popular juvenile, midgrade and YA titles by the middle of the summer.

LOWER EAST SIDE: CHILDREN'S AREA!

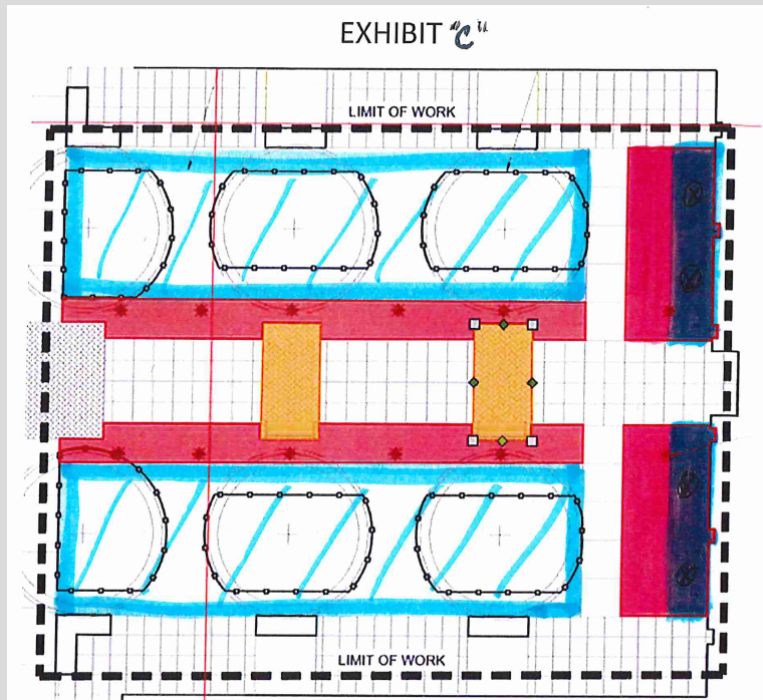

After moving the Juv. Fiction upstairs we have created additional spacing in the children's area for families to sit and kids to play.

We have also freed up more space in the storytime room by moving a few of the table out in to the newly created space.

COURTYARD PROGRESS!

Work has begun on the Courtyard:

✔ Irrigation work completed

✔ New drainage system installed

✔ Old lighting in the center walkway has been removed.

✔ Electrical work and concrete work has been completed for the new light posts.
