JAMES WALLER THOMAS HOUSE
THIS VERNACULAR STYLE HOUSE WAS BUILT IN 1899 BY JAMES WALLER THOMAS, AN EARLY CIVIC LEADER IN COLLIN COUNTY. FOR HIS FAMILY OF 13, ORIGINALLY A ONE-ROOM RESIDENCE, THE HOUSE HAS SINCE BEEN SUBSTANTIALLY MODIFIED SINCE 1902. IT REFLECTS THE MODERN HOMES BUILT BY EARLY SETTLERS OF NORTH TEXAS WITH MATERIALS AND TECHNIQUES AVAILABLE PRIOR TO THE ARRIVAL OF MASS SERVICE. ORIGINAL ELEMENTS INCLUDE THE HEWN-TIMBER FOUNDATION AND ROOF ATTEMPT ON THOMAS' LIFE BY AN UNKNOWN PERSON, LIKELY DUE TO HIS ROLLS AS EDITOR AND PUBLISHER OF THE COUNTY'S FIRST NEWSPAPER. WHEN HE EXPRESSED SUPPORT FOR THE UNION AND THE RIGHTS OF BLACK SETTLERS - OPINIONS UNPOPULAR WITH SOME DURING THE CIVIL WAR AND RECONSTRUCTION.
