

This past month was a good one. Several new projects have come up that look positive for McKinney, and I am looking forward to continuing to work with these companies to get them to locate in our community.

Business Development Activities:

- Had lunch with John, Cayti, and Playful Corp. to discuss their relocation options on 6/18
- Met with an engineering/manufacturing firm from California looking to expand into Texas on 6/23
- Met John and Playful Corp. for breakfast to discuss incentive and local lease options on 6/24
- Attended the Texas One Chicago Mission 7/8 - 7/10
- Met with prospect from New York looking to establish an office in North Texas on 7/11

Projects:

I have several active projects in the pipeline, but none of them require board action this month.

Miscellaneous Activities:

- Attended McKinney National Airport private open house on 6/27
- Attended McKinney National Airport public open house on 6/28
- Attended Nancy Windham's retirement party in Frisco on 7/2
