Subdivision Ordinance & Platting Process

Governing Legislation

Governed by and applied through Chapter 212 of the Texas Local Government Code.

Chapter 212 of the Texas Local Government Code states:

“A municipality may adopt rules governing plats and subdivisions of land within the municipality’s jurisdiction to promote the health, safety, morals, or general welfare of the municipality and the safe, orderly, and healthful development of the municipality”

City of McKinney Subdivision Regulations define a Subdivision as:

“The division of any lot, tract, or parcel of land into two or more lots or sites for the purpose of sale or of building development, whether immediate or future”

Subdivision Ordinance & Platting Process

What?

- A set of regulations that govern the subdivision of property for the purposes of sale or development.

Why?

- Implementation of the City's Comprehensive Plan
- Safe, efficient and orderly development of the City
- Facilitates the adequate provision for transportation, water, sewage, schools, parkland, and other public requirements

Allows the City to promote orderly growth and development so that quality of life can be maintained as the City grows.

Subdivision Ordinance & Platting Process

Who?

- Applies to all properties within the McKinney City Limits and surrounding Extra-Territorial Jurisdiction (ETJ)
- Administered by Development Services Division of the City (Planning & Engineering Departments)
- Ministerial process (if meeting all requirements, the plat must be approved – not discretionary)
- Planning & Zoning Commission has approval authority for conveyance plats, preliminary-final plats, preliminary-final replats, and minor replats
- Staff has approval authority for amending plats, minor plats, and record plats
- Deviations or variances from the requirements of the City's Subdivision Ordinance may only be granted by the City Council
