Comments

I received a post card from the city since a zoning meeting is scheduled to determine the disposition of property across the street from my residence. After researching the phrase "Multi-Family Residential Use" for the city of McKinney, it appears this refers to apartment complexes. Packing several hundred people into a small area in an already crowded and growing location next to two large schools would be a mistake. This will cause severe traffic congestion, danger to students on foot, overcrowding in the schools and a strain on community infrastructure to name only a few issues. Rezoning for single family home use would be fine.
