PARADES & PROCESSIONS

Watching the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade on TV creates a beloved holiday tradition, but now you will expect you have to see it firsthand to get the full experience. While this can be a challenge, there are ways to get in the Christmas spirit without leaving your home. One way is to watch the parade on TV. Another way is to attend the parade in person. The McKinney Christmas Parade of Lights is a great way to get in the Christmas spirit without leaving your home. The parade is held in historic downtown McKinney and features a variety of floats, bands, and Santa Claus. The parade is held on Saturday, December 14th at 6:30 PM. The parade is free and open to the public. For more information, please visit mckinneyparadeoflights.com.

MCKINNEY CHRISTMAS PARADE OF LIGHTS Celebrating 18 years of spreading Christmas cheer, the McKinney Rotary Club's annual parade is themed "Making a Difference." The event features themed floats, performances by McKinney ISD bands and drill teams, antique firetrucks and — last but not least — Santa Claus.

■ Dec. 9 at 6:30 p.m., starting and ending at Hunt and Tennessee streets in historic downtown McKinney. Free. mckinneyparadeoflights.com.
