

EXHIBIT A

THIRD AMENDED AND RESTATED BYLAWS OF McKINNEY HOUSING FINANCE CORPORATION
A Public Non-Profit Corporation

ARTICLE ONE

Powers and Purposes

Section 1.01: Purpose. The McKinney Housing Finance Corporation (the "Corporation") is duly incorporated under and pursuant to the Texas Housing Finance Corporations Act (the "Act") for the purpose of benefiting and accomplishing public purposes of and on behalf of the City of McKinney, Texas (the "City"), by financing the cost of residential ownership and development that will provide decent, safe and sanitary housing for residents of the City at prices they can afford. It has been determined and declared by the Legislature of the State of Texas that such residential ownership and development will (a) provide for and promote the public health, safety, morals, and welfare; (b) relieve conditions of unemployment and encourage the increase of industry and commercial activity and economic development so as to reduce the evils attendant upon employment; (c) provide for efficient and well-planned urban growth and development including the elimination and prevention of potential urban blight and the proper coordination of industrial facilities with public services, mass transportation and residential development; (d) assist persons of low and moderate income in acquiring and owning decent, safe and sanitary housing which they can afford; and (e) preserve and increase ad valorem tax bases of local governmental units. The foregoing findings have been determined and declared by the Legislature of the State of Texas to lessen the burden of government and to be public purposes and functions.

Section 1.02: Powers. The Corporation shall have all such powers as are conferred by the Articles of Incorporation and the Act, and may exercise any powers incidental to, or necessary for, the performance of the powers therein prescribed and any such other powers that are necessary or appropriate to carry out the purposes of the Corporation except those additional powers that conflict with any resolutions, policies or ordinances of the City of McKinney or its governing body, this limitation shall not be read to conflict with the powers set forth by state law.

In furtherance of its purposes, the Corporation may:

- (1) Make contracts and other instruments as necessary or convenient to the exercise of powers;
- (2) Incur liabilities;
- (3) Borrow money at rates determined by the Corporation;
- (4) Issue notes, bonds, and other obligations;
- (5) Secure any of its obligations by the mortgage or pledge of all or part of the Corporation's property, franchises, and income;
- (6) Plan, research, study, develop and promote the establishment of residential development;
- (7) Make donations for the public welfare or for charitable, scientific or educational purposes;
- (8) Enter into contracts to perform services for any other housing finance corporation or any individual or entity acting on behalf of any other housing finance corporation or, with respect to residential development, any housing authority, nonprofit enterprise, or similar entity;
- (9) Apply for and accept, on its own behalf or on behalf of another person, advances, loans, grants, contributions, guarantees, rent supplements, mortgage assistance, and other forms of financial assistance from the federal government, the state, a county, a municipality, or any other public or quasi-public body, corporation, or foundation, or from any other public or private source.

The list of powers enumerated in this provision is only illustrative and in no way limits or restricts any other powers prescribed by the Act or Articles of Incorporation.

ARTICLE TWO

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 2.01: Powers, Composition and Term of Office. The affairs, activities, business, programs and property of the Corporation shall be managed and controlled by the Board of Directors (the "Board") and, subject to the restrictions imposed by law, including the Act, the City, the Articles of Incorporation, and these Bylaws, the Board shall exercise all powers of the Corporation and do all lawful acts.

Board membership and eligibility shall be in accordance with criteria stipulated in the City Council Policy on Board and Commission Member Appointment and Eligibility.

The Treasurer shall maintain the Corporation's financial reports.

SECTION 3.06. Executive Director. With City Council's approval, the Board may hire for a reasonable compensation an Executive Director to perform such duties as the Board may prescribe. The Executive Director shall serve at the will and pleasure of the Board and he or she shall be experienced and qualified in securing funding for and developing an effective affordable housing program. No director of the Corporation shall be eligible for this office unless he or she resigns from the Board. When the office of Executive Director becomes vacant, the Board shall appoint a successor.

SECTION 3.07. Resignation. Any officer may resign at any time. Such resignation shall be made in writing and shall take effect at the time specified therein, or, if no time is specified, at the time of its receipt by the City Council. The acceptance of a resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective, unless expressly so provided in the resignation.

ARTICLE FOUR

PROVISIONS REGARDING ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

AND BYLAWS

SECTION 4.01. Effective Date. These Amended and Restated Bylaws shall become effective upon their adoption by the Board and approval by the City Council.

SECTION 4.02. Amendments to Articles of Incorporation. The Articles of Incorporation may be amended at any time and from time to time so as to make any changes therein and to add any provisions thereto which might have been included in the Articles of Incorporation in the first instance pursuant to the provisions of the Act. Any such amendments shall be effected in any of the following manners: (i) the Board shall file with the City a written application requesting permission to amend the Articles of Incorporation, specifying in such application the amendment proposed to be made. The City shall consider such application and if it by appropriate resolution finds and determines that it is wise, expedient, necessary or advisable that the proposed amendment be made, authorize the same to be made and approve the form of the proposed amendment. The Board may then amend the Articles of Incorporation by adopting such amendment at a meeting of the Board and delivering the same to the Secretary of State of Texas; or (ii) the City may, at its sole discretion, and at any time, alter or change the structure, organization, programs or activities of the Corporation and may terminate the Corporation, subject to any limitation on the impairment of contracts entered into by the Corporation, by adopting an amendment to the Articles of Incorporation at a meeting of the City Council and delivering the same to the Secretary of State of Texas.

SECTION 4.03. Amendments to Bylaws. These Bylaws may be altered, changed, or amended by majority vote of the Board at any meeting of the Board at which a quorum is present, provided notice of the proposed alteration, change, or amendment be contained in the notice of such meeting.

SECTION 4.04. Interpretation of Bylaws. These Bylaws, including all amendments thereto, and all the terms and provisions hereof shall be liberally construed to effectuate the purposes set forth herein. If any word, phrase, clause, sentence, paragraph, section or other part of these Bylaws, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance, shall ever be held to be invalid or unconstitutional by any court of competent jurisdiction, the remainder of these Bylaws and the application of such word, phrase, clause, sentence, paragraph, section or other part of these Bylaws to any other person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby.

ARTICLE FIVE

FISCAL PROVISIONS

SECTION 5.01. Non-profit Corporation — Disposition of Earnings. The Corporation is a public non-profit corporation. No dividends shall ever be paid to, and no part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall be distributed to or inure to the benefit of, its directors, or officers, or other private person, association, or corporation, except in reasonable amount for services rendered, except that in the event the Board determines that sufficient provision has been made for the full payment of the expenses, debts, bonds and other obligations of the Corporation, then any net earnings of the Corporation thereafter accruing shall be re-appropriated through a budget amendment approved by the City. Nothing herein contained, however, shall prevent the Board from transferring all or any part of its properties in accordance with the terms of any contract or agreement entered into by the Corporation.

SECTION 5.02. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Corporation shall be the same as the fiscal year for the City. The fiscal year shall begin on the first day of October of each year and shall end with the thirtieth day of September of each year.

SECTION 5.03. Reports of Financial Statements. The treasurer shall present at the regular meetings of the Board on a quarterly basis a statement of finances or a written account of all monies received and paid out on behalf of the Corporation.

SECTION 5.04. Budget. The Board shall approve the proposed annual budget by July 25th. The Board shall submit to the City Council for approval a proposed annual budget of the revenues of the Corporation and the expenses of conducting the affairs thereof for the ensuing fiscal year. The City Council may appropriate funds for use of the Corporation in meeting such expenses and expenditures, as may be necessary in the exercise of its duties, in the same manner as is provided in the City Charter for all departments of the City. All Corporation expenditures shall be approved by the Board, in accordance with the budget, and processed in accordance with the established procedures of the City.

SECTION 5.05. Dissolution of Corporation — Distribution of Funds and Properties. Upon dissolution of the Corporation, title to all funds and properties or interest in any real or personal property owned by the Corporation at the time of such dissolution shall vest in the City and possession of such funds and properties or interest in properties shall forthwith be delivered to the City.

ARTICLE SIX

GENERAL PROVISIONS

SECTION 6.01. Principal Office. The principal office of the McKinney Housing Finance Corporation shall be at 222 North Tennessee Street, McKinney, Texas 75069.

The Corporation shall have and continuously maintain in the State of Texas a registered office (which may be, but need not be, the same as the principal office) and registered agent in accordance with the provisions of Article 2.05 of the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act. The Corporation may change its registered office and registered agent in accordance with the provisions of Article 2.06 of the Non-Profit Corporation Act. Process may be served on the Corporation in accordance with the provisions of Article 2.07 of the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act.

SECTION 6.02. Seal. The seal of the Corporation shall be determined by the Board. The corporate seal shall be circular and shall have inscribed in the outer circle "McKinney Housing Finance Corporation" and shall have inscribed in the inner circle the letters "T-E-X-A-S" and a five-pointed star. Said seal may be used by causing it or a facsimile thereof to be impressed or affixed or reproduced or otherwise. The imprint of this seal thus authorized is affixed opposite to this section.

SECTION 6.03. Notice and Waiver. Whenever any notice whatsoever is required to be given under the provisions of the Act, the Articles of Incorporation, or these Bylaws, said notice shall be deemed sufficient if provided by depositing the notice, enclosed in a postpaid, properly addressed wrapper, in a post office or official depository under the care and custody of the United States Postal Service; by personal delivery; by telegraph; by telephonic document transfer; by electronic mail, or similar communications equipment, as it appears on the books of the Corporation, and such notice shall be deemed to have been given on the day of such mailing or such other method of delivery.

Except as otherwise provided by law, the Articles of Incorporation or the Bylaws, as amended, supplemented, and restated, neither the specific business to be transacted nor the purpose of any regular or special meeting need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice. Attendance for a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Whenever any notice is required to be given to any director, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to said notice, whether signed before or after the time required for the notice, shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice.

SECTION 6.04. Action Without a Meeting of Directors or Committee. Any action which may be taken at a meeting of the Board or any committee may be taken without a meeting if consent in writing, setting forth the action to be taken, shall be signed by a majority of the directors, or, as appropriate, all of the members of the committee. Such consent shall have the same force and effect as a vote and may be stated as such in any Articles of Incorporation or other document filed with the Secretary of State under the Act.

SECTION 6.05. Approval of Action Taken by the Board. Approval of any action taken by the Board shall be evidenced by the minutes or other evidence of said action sent in a timely manner to the City Council. The Board shall submit the minutes of all meetings, upon approval by the Board, to the City Council.

SECTION 6.06: Books and Records. The Corporation shall keep correct and complete books and records of account and shall also keep minutes of the proceedings of its Board. All such books, records of account, and minutes shall be available for inspection by any director, officer or duly authorized representative thereof, or by any duly authorized representative of the City, except when and to the extent such disclosure is prohibited by applicable law.
