Junior Players' McKinney Arts Commission Narrative Final Report 2013/14

In 2013/14 Junior Players continued its program offerings in McKinney by providing 40 after-school sessions at Old Settler's and 20 sessions at McKinney Community Center. 6 different programs were offered for 10 sessions each. The programs offered were Discover Theater, Discover Photography, Discover Dance, Discover Africa and Discover Art. Attendance in all workshops was good and the objectives of each workshop were successfully met.

In the summer of 2014 Junior Players provided 4 Discover Theater camps in McKinney at McKinney Community Center and Old Settler's Park, 1 in June, 2 in July and 1 in August. These camps are designed to introduce children to basic skills in theater utilizing various theater games and oral communication exercises. The students also put together an original short play that was performed at the summer camps' culminating event called The Festival of Plays. Overall, the children had a very positive experience, and the teaching objectives were successfully met. The camps were publicized through the recreation centers program listings, The Dallas Morning News' Parents Guide to Summer, dallasnews.com, local newspapers, monthly e-mail newsletters and the Junior Players website. In Participant Surveys, 86% said they felt more confident speaking in front of others, 78% reported feeling better about themselves as a result of the program, and 89% want to participate in more theater activities. When asked what they liked most about the camp, participant comments included-

"It was very unique, which made it fun, and it let my creative mind flow." Aurea Coral, Age 12, Old Settler's Recreation Center
