

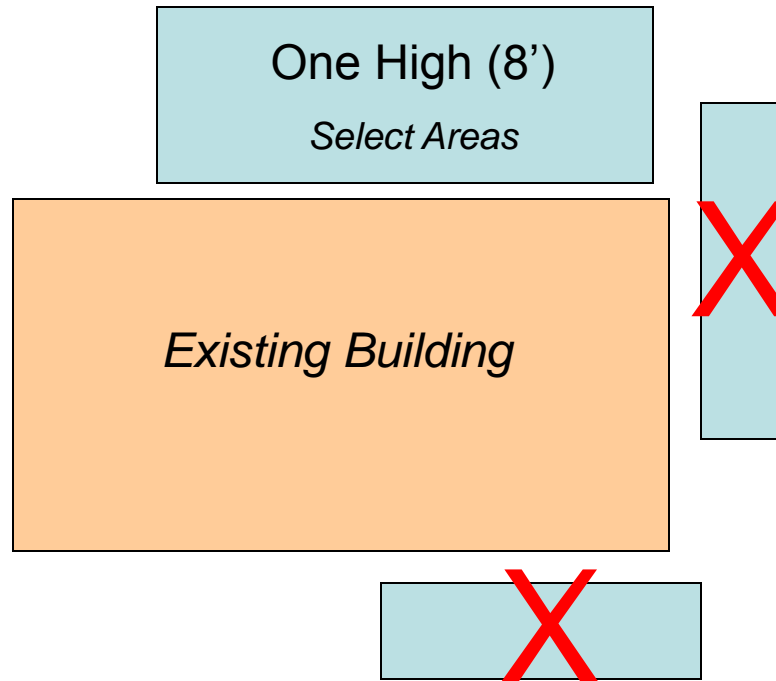

Graphic Representations of Currently Allowed, Applicant's Request, and P&Z Recommendation

This is meant to provide illustrative reference only.

Currently Allowed

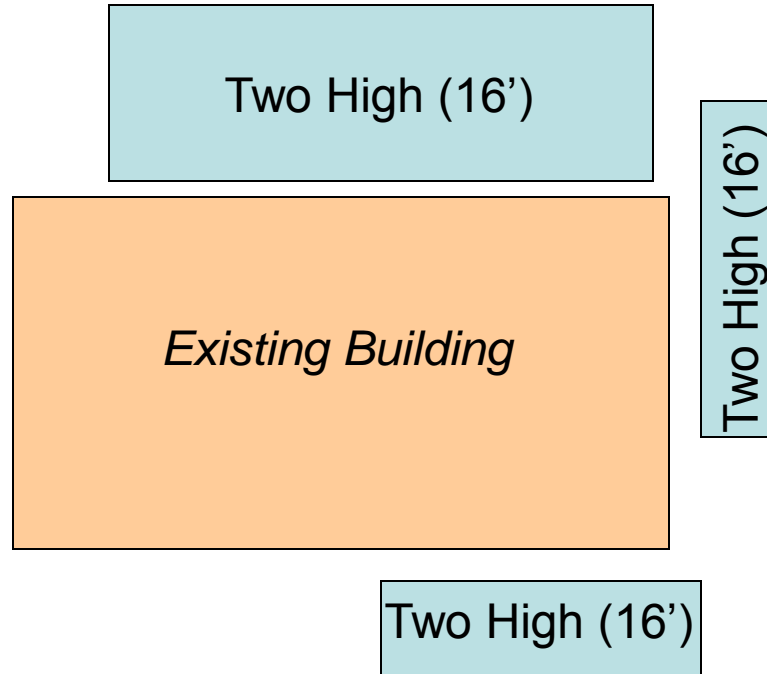

This is a generalized representation. Refer to the governing planned development district for more information.

Residential Subdivision

Select areas on the north side of the building are currently allowed to have single-stacked portable storage containers (8' ht).

Applicant's Request

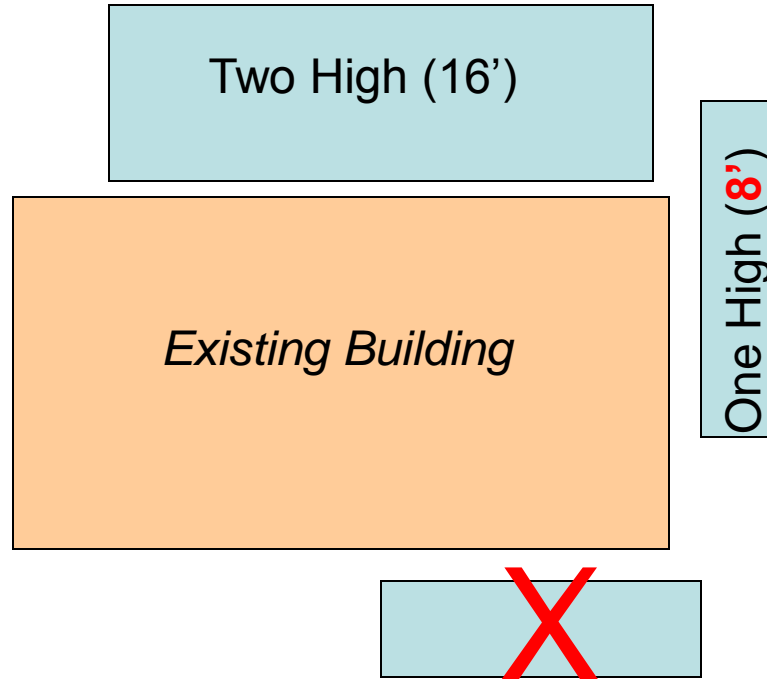

This is a generalized representation. Refer to the proposed zoning exhibit for more information.

Residential Subdivision

The applicant is requesting to have double-stacked portable storage containers (16' ht) on the north, south, and east sides of the building.

P&Z Recommendation

This is a generalized representation. Refer to the P&Z minutes for more information.

Residential Subdivision

P&Z recommended approval of double-stacked portable storage containers (16' ht) on the north side, single-stacked containers (8') on the east side, and no containers on the south side.