Details: The McKinney Philharmonic Orchestra brings to McKinney for the first time the music of Antonio Carlos Jobim. Composer, song writer, pianist and singer, Jobim is known as the father of the Bossa Nova Style and a champion of Brazilian music. This evening promises listeners a trip down memory lane with songs like Girl from Ipanema, Wave and Desafinado. The McKinney Philharmonic will present some of Jobim's original arrangements by Nelson Riddle and Claus Ogerman. The McKinney Philharmonic Orchestra will feature Hans York and Banda Brazil.

Title: The Happy Prince
Date: 2/23/2020 (Sunday)
Address: 306 N Church St
Location: McKinney, TX
Hours: 4:30 PM
Cost/Cover: 7.00 - 20.00
Web Page: <http://www.mckinneyphilharmonic.org>
Discounts: <https://happyprince.brownpapertickets.com/>
Contact Info: 9405948790
Details: Bring the kids and the whole family to discover that going to the symphony can be fun. Music and storytelling comes to life with these two beloved pieces. The Carnival of Animals by Saint Saens will delight the soul, both young and old. The Narration has charm and humor whilst the music is wonderful. Oscar Wilde's book The Happy Prince will come to life in a form of a music and narrator. The Happy Prince by Oscar Wilde is the story of a statue, the Happy Prince, covered with gold and many fine jewels. It sits overlooking the city. One day, a swallow passing through seeks shelter under the statue and discovers the prince is not happy, but sad. The Happy Prince is adapted into a musical composition with orchestra and narration by Jan Bach. A concert for the family.
