Commissioners Present: Pamela Harden, Tricia Conover, Sandra Doak, Molly Brewer, Jeffery Hull, Michele Andriola. Absent: Greg Huckaby.

Staff Present: Janay Tieken, Manager; Judy Hawkins, Administrative Assistant.

There was one guest present.

- 17-034 Minutes of the McKinney Arts Commission Meeting of October 20, 2016. Commissioners unanimously approved the motion by Commissioner Brewer, seconded by Commissioner Hull, to approve the minutes of the McKinney Arts Commission meeting of October 20, 2016.
- 17-035 Staff Report on Budget Status. Manager Tieken reported Outreach Grant expenses of $3,300 (Jump Into Art and Obelisk Awards), a Public Art budget of $33,054, and a Special Projects budget of $15,000.
- 17-036 Commissioner Reports. - Commissioner Brewer reported that the Obelisk Awards Luncheon was a wonderful experience with stories of amazing art accomplishments. She also noted the large amount of support from the business community. Commissioner Brewer reported that the Pairings exhibit, "American Farmer" has been booked for June, 2018. She continues to work on a "Pairings" exhibit by John Bramblitt, "Cast of Blues," to take place in the summer of 2017. The cost of this exhibit would be $1,700. The mural subcommittee provided a list of the original mural location possibilities and noted the status of each one. It was reported that Don Day was interested in utilizing the wall next to the Chamber Building and had already been in touch with an artist, so the Arts Commission might partner by matching funds. The owner of Ambrosia has also shown interest in partnering on a mural. Additional sites proposed were the PSA, Market Street, the new MISD football stadium, and the 9-acre development being built near Chestnut Village. Commissioner Brewer will follow up on these locations and familiarize interested persons with the process. Manager Tieken noted that the commissioners would have to fund-raise the 50% match unless the Public Art Administrative Guidelines are revised by City Council.
