Mission & Purpose of the Organization:

To enrich the lives of youth through the art of photography. Photography is used as a means for self-expression and personal growth. This program gives youth the chance to explore in a safe and non-threatening environment. The youth learn basic techniques and principles of photography.

Project(s) Description:

Participants are provided a camera and taught the fundamentals of photography to capture, share and gather new meaning from their life experiences. They are given a platform to give voice to the things that they want to share which will support developing their communication skills.
