

DEVELOPMENT NAVIGATION ASSISTANT

BUILDING MCKINNEY. STEP BY STEP.

A-TO-Z DEVELOPMENT GUIDE

CITY OF MCKINNEY

An intuitive and easy-to-use guide that brings transparency and simplicity to the development process.

1

GET REGISTERED

2

ANSWER A FEW QUESTIONS

3

GET YOUR A-TO-Z GUIDE

4

APPLY AND GET PERMITTED

Ready to take a peek?

Which option below best describes your project?

Residential

New Home
Building a new single family, townhome, or duplex home.

New Accessory Structure (Detached)
Building a detached accessory structure (i.e., guest house, patio covering, deck, garage, or shed).

Alterations to a Structure or Site Improvements
Modifications or alterations to the home or the lot on which on the home is located.

Addition to a Structure
Projects that are adding square footage to the main home, such as new rooms, carports, and patio coverings.

Residential Fence
Free-standing fence on a residential lot that does not retain soil or support a building or other

You're in Guest Mode. To save your progress or submit your application(s), sign in or.

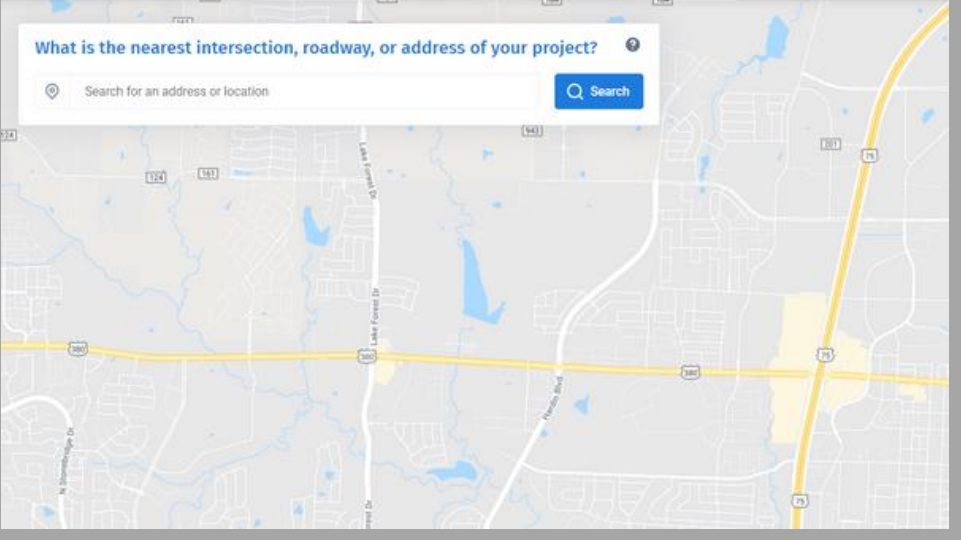

McKinney Permit Guide

Permit Guide

What is the nearest intersection, roadway, or address of your project?

 Search for an address or location

 Search

 Back to previous page

1

Is the property platted for single family residential uses?

 I'm not sure how to answer this

Yes

No

2

Will a residential fence be constructed with the home?

3

Is the property zoned for single family residential uses?

4

Is the property located within a homeowners' association?

5

Are there any existing trees on the property?

6

Are any of the trees considered a quality tree and measure 27" or greater in caliper?

Submit Answers