19-0245 Consider/Discuss/Act on a Resolution Authorizing the City Manager to Enter into an Agreement with the Regional Transportation Council for Award of Transportation Development Credits for Improvements to East Louisiana Street from State Highway 5 to Throckmorton Street

Capital Improvement Project Manager Nick Ataie stated a Transportation Development Credit (TDC) is a state credit which can be earned by developing programs in areas such as air quality, land use strategies, education and outreach. The city has accumulated nearly $4,000,000 (four million) and sought recommendations from the Regional Transportation Council of the North Texas Council of Governments on projects to secure additional federal funds for completion. The TDCs will be used to offset the twenty percent cost matching requirements for federal funding on the project. Mr. Ataie stated engineering for the project is scheduled for the year 2021 and construction in 2023, with requests to move the project to sooner. Approximately $736,000 (seven hundred thirty-six thousand) of the TDCs will be utilized for the project.

Council unanimously approved the motion by Council Member Shemwell, seconded by Council Member Branch, to approve a Resolution Authorizing the City Manager to Enter into an Agreement with the Regional Transportation Council for Award of Transportation Development Credits for Improvements to East Louisiana Street from State Highway 5 to Throckmorton Street. Mayor Fuller called for Council and Manager Comments.

Council Member Elliott spoke on the passing of Deborah Kilgore, Curator of the Collin County Historical Museum. A memorial for Mrs. Kilgore was held at the Museum on March 17, and Mr. Elliott read this poem, attributed as a Native American prayer, in her honor:

*I give you this one thought to keep,
I am with you still. I do not sleep.
I'm one thousand winds that blow
And the diamond in the snow;
I am sunlight on ripened grain,
And the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush,
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds and circle of light
In the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not think of me as gone.
I'm with you still in each new dawn.*

Mr. Elliott noted his friendship with Mrs. Kilgore and appreciation for her depth of research as a Curator. He encouraged the public to visit the McKinney Then & Now exhibit at the museum, one of the final contributions by Mrs. Kilgore, and thanked the Museum for the memorial, and extended his prayers to her family.

Council Member Rogers announced the March 10 birth of his seventh grandchild, Max Rogers, in Houston, Texas.

Council Member Shemwell acknowledged the visitors in the audience, thanking them for attending the meeting, especially the young people who might have been attending a meeting for the first time. Mr. Shemwell shared words of encouragement stating learning about and engaging in local government is how “we change our community...how we change the world.”

Council Member Branch had no comments, except to thank the audience for attending the meeting and wish everyone a great night.

Mayor Pro Tem Rath Council Member Philips had no comments.

City Manager Grimes announced the Apex Centre Summer Activity Guides are available in print and on the city website; announced the Texas Trash-Off event taking place Saturday, April 6, 2019 in which residents are encouraged to pick of trash and litter alongside roadways. Details about the annual event and volunteering is available on the city website. McKinney representatives are planning for Collin County Days, led by the Chamber of Commerce will be March 26-27, 2019 in Austin, Texas during the State Legislative Session. Mr. Grimes announced the Mosaic at Chestnut Square Parking Garage is almost finished and already worth a look.

Mayor Fuller reminded everyone the upcoming election on May 4, 2019 will include elections for three Council seats and city bonds and encouraged the public to visit the city webpage for information about all the election propositions. Mayor Fuller again encouraged the public to visit the McKinney Then & Now exhibit at the Collin County History Museum; and the SRS headquarters developed by KDC will be at Hub 121, bringing 150 (one hundred fifty) new jobs to the area. Dr. Gere' Feltus was sworn into the McKinney Economic Development Board, replacing the departing Jason Burress. Mr. Burress served the board for four years, including three as the Chairman.

There was no Executive Session.

Council unanimously approved the motion by Council Member Branch, seconded by Council Member Rogers, to adjourn. Mayor Fuller adjourned the meeting at 7:32 p.m.
