ITEM SUMMARY:

- The McKinney Community Development Corporation will consider/discuss/act on the project grant application submitted by The Salvation Army McKinney Corps Community Center in the amount of $33,917.90 to fund replacement of the gymnasium floor at the Salvation Army Community Center in McKinney.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION:

- MCDC has allocated $1,364,926 to fund community projects eligible for consideration under sections 501 to 505 of the Texas Local Government Code in FY 19.
- Support for community sports and fitness facilities is a strategic priority of the MCDC board of directors.

- The Salvation Army Community Center has been a part of the McKinney community for 18 years and is located at 600 Wilson Creek Parkway.
- The gymnasium at the Community Center is used for a variety of athletic activities and special events to support their youth sports programs, senior adult recreation and other programming.
- The current gymnasium floor has suffered extensive wear and tear and is in need of replacement in order to be suitable for the safe conduct of athletic activities.
- The amount requested represents 49% of the total cost for gymnasium floor replacement and approval will allow the project to move forward.

FINANCIAL SUMMARY:

- The request is eligible for MCDRC consideration under Section 505.152 of the Texas Local Government Code - Projects Related to Recreational or Community Facilities.
- The project will enhance the quality of life for McKinney residents.
