

TITLE: Proclamation of McKinney Police Department TPCA Re-Recognition

The McKinney Police Department has been awarded “Re-recognized” status through the Texas Police Chief’s Association (TPCA). This award demonstrates a commitment to professional excellence in policy and practice.

TPCA Recognition is accomplished through a period of self-evaluation in which a law enforcement agency brings their policy and practice into compliance with nearly 160 Best Practices recognized in the State of Texas as the highest professional standards. This process takes place over a four year period in which the agency continuously demonstrates compliance with the requirements of the program including an annual report and final on-site inspection.
