Please provide a detailed narrative about your organization including year established, mission, goals, scope of services, staff, successes, contribution to community, etc.

McKinney Public Library Foundation (MPLF) is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit public charity established in 2023 to support and enhance the McKinney Public Library System through philanthropic funding and community partnership. Our mission is to generate continued enthusiasm for our library system and to secure funding for enhancements that enrich the variety and depth of library programs, services, and collections—ensuring that everyone benefits from the wealth of resources our libraries offer and that these assets continue to grow for all McKinney residents.

MPLF is governed by a volunteer Board of Directors and works in close partnership with McKinney Public Library leadership and staff. In this partnership model, the Library serves as the operating entity delivering programs and community engagement, while MPLF provides fiscal stewardship, fundraising capacity, and grant administration support to help scale impact.

Partner capacity and reach (McKinney Public Library): The Library was established in 1928 and serves the McKinney community by providing access to materials and experiences that educate, inform, and entertain. Even while the Roy and Helen Hall Memorial Library has been closed for renovation, the Library continues to deliver strong community participation and engagement through programming and outreach. The John and Judy Gay Library has been consistently busy and a Library Locker has been added so that patrons can drop off items and pick up holds at the City Hall of McKinney.

The renovation includes these aspects that will simplify and amplify patrons library experience:

- 26-foot planetarium, capable of holding 55 people in non-fixed seating, suitable for a variety of programming
- 2,500-square-foot exhibit space to allow the library to host traveling museum exhibits
- Dedicated youth and teen spaces tailored to younger audiences
- Dedicated quiet wing for focused studying and reading
- Dedicated local history section to preserve and showcase McKinney's heritage
- Increased number of reservable study rooms
- Additional elevators

Everyone, the staff at McKinney Public Library, the Foundation and the community of McKinney, is very much looking forward to the reopening of the Roy and Helen Hall Library in downtown McKinney.

McKinney Public Library System utilizes Facebook for their social media presence and has over 5.9 followers. They also have a newsletter with over 14.5 thousand subscribers.

The Hall reopening celebration is expected to draw residents and visitors to downtown McKinney, increasing awareness and foot traffic to the downtown corridor and nearby shopping and dining. The event experience will intentionally encourage visitors to explore downtown McKinney before and after the celebration through clear wayfinding, partner participation, and calls-to-action that highlight local businesses and amenities.

McKinney Public Library has an active presence in the community and the McKinney Public Library Foundation often attends to support the library and to raise awareness of the foundation. All other patrons, young adults to seniors, are always welcome and are sure to appreciate celebrating the reopening of Hall Library.

Arts, culture, science are the primary interests for those visiting the new Roy & Helen Hall Library. The building will look significantly different, with a thoughtful new floor plan. The addition of traveling exhibits and the Planetarium will add a destination level interest to those who enjoy the sciences and culture. Metrics to evaluate success of event. Outline the metrics that will be used to evaluate success of the proposed event (attendance, reach from across targeted audiences, funds raised, tickets sold, etc). If funding is awarded, a final report will be required summarizing success in achieving objectives outlined for the event.

Success will be measured in continued awareness of library programming and attendance, awareness of the McKinney Public Library Foundation and an increase in giving to support foundation initiatives. It will be measured by library staff through Planetarium visits and new library accounts created within the first week that have Roy and Helen Hall listed as their home library. External press coverage and social media engagements with check-ins and shares will be noted.

Provide a comprehensive narrative that includes:

- Mission, goals, planning and execution timeline
- Planned activities (pre-event and during event)
- History of past or similar events
- Safety/security plan, parking/traffic management plan, weather contingency, event staffing plan

Mission: To celebrate the reopening of the Roy & Helen Hall Memorial Library by delivering a free, high-quality community experience that introduces new audiences to Library services and strengthens McKinney's downtown as a family-friendly destination.

Goals:

- Increase community awareness and attendance for the Hall reopening milestone.
- Sustain and maintain program attendance in the months surrounding reopening through consistent promotion of library programs and services.

Timeline: (best practice estimation with MPL implementing)

- 10-12 weeks prior: finalize event concept, run-of-show, partners, and required approvals; create creative assets and landing page.
- 6-8 weeks prior: launch early awareness (press outreach + organic promotion); finalize print placements and bookmark design.
- 4-6 weeks prior: ramp paid promotions; monitor registrations/interest; adjust targeting based on response as needed.
- 1-2 weeks prior: peak promotional period; confirm staffing/volunteers and on-site logistics; print and distribute materials.
- Event week: daily reminders; onsite QR codes/check-in prompts; capture attendance and zip code data where feasible.

Planned activities:

Overall Theme: SPACE; continuous Planetarium showings all day

Stations/activities ideas:

- Comet craft
- Galaxy sensory bin
- Alien dance part
- Space slime lab
- Alien and astronaut wearable crafts
- Constellation yarn art
- Robot/rover activity

Sponsored ideas: bounce houses, plant giveaway, balloon artist

Specials for the event:

- Special edition merch
- Special edition library cards
- Space decorations
- Shut down Hunt Street (tentative, MPL inquiries)
- Scavenger Hunt to explore the entire library and outside for star formations

McKinney Public Library Foundation:

Table to increase visitor awareness; MPLF swag; treats; give away books and themed basket through raffle.

History: This is an unprecedented event! The last time there was a new library - John and Judy Gay Library - it just opened, with no elaborate celebration. People were excited to have another branch open. Then, renovations and updating to the "new" library occurred in 2020, so again, there was no grand reopening.

Safety/security:

Library will follow their normal security protocols. They will have new security cameras throughout the library.

Parking/traffic management:

The Hall lot and parking throughout downtown is deemed sufficient, as it will be an untimed, all-day celebration. Visitors are welcome to come and go during open hours.

Weather contingency:

Activities will be moved inside in the event of poor weather, as allowed.

Event Staffing Plan:

MPL staff will be full; MPL volunteers may be utilized; McKinney Public Library Foundation will also be present.

Describe how your event will showcase McKinney for tourism and economic development for residents and visitors (shopping and dining in McKinney, hotel stays, participation in other McKinney activities, etc.)

With the remodeling of the Roy and Helen Hall Library and its closure for over a year, the reopening is already a much-anticipated event. With the inclusion of a Planterium, traveling exhibits, new floor plan, and overall new environment, coupled with the familiar staff and high level of book collections, the Hall Library will be a destination for McKinney residents and those outside of the city, to include the county and maybe even the DFW area. When there is something exciting to draw people in, they tend to stay and linger: in the library and then in Downtown McKinney. The walkability from the library to all of the downtown activities, shops, restaurants and special events, make a longer visit more appealing. A Grand Opening event for the new and improved Roy and Helen Hall Library should make it onto everyone's calendar.

Provide a detailed and itemized promotional plan and budget for the event(s). Plan should include promotional channels (print ads including publication names, social media, radio, posters, flyers, yard signs, etc.)

Promotional Channel	Budget
Social Media	$1,935
Printed bookmarks	$750
Print media: Community Impact, CI storytelling ad, website ads	$2,815

 Hall Reopening 2026 MCDC Grant Pro... .pdf

Total Promotional Budget

$5,500.00

Does your marketing plan include components specifically designed to promote your event(s) within the ethnically diverse communities that call McKinney home? Please share details.

Yes! Marketing plan will include bilingual materials for Hispanic patrons and community. Community Impact goes to every household for McKinney. Using Meta and Google platforms to reach outside of McKinney.

What percentage of the total marketing budget does the grant represent?

100%

Marketing lessons learned from past events (if applicable).

From past events that received funds from MCDC, it was found that Social Media, Bookmarks, and Community Impact ads were the most effective to reach McKinney residents. The budget breakdown reflects this and adds some new options. Advertise early and consistently; provide clear event details in advance; use registration/QR codes to measure campaign effectiveness; and modulate based on resgistration and capacity to avoid overcrowding.

If applicable, please include examples of past marketing efforts (screen shots of ads, posters, social posts, radio text, etc.)

Unable to screenshot and post the "Caroling on the Square" advertisement used for social media and MPL newsletter from Saturday, Dec. 14, 2024, with banner at bottom with McKinney Texas | McKinney Public Library | Promotional support provided by MCDC McKinney Community Development Corporation from Kate Wilson's presentation after the events from the grant.

Additional details related to marketing efforts.

MCDC has been very supportive of past McKinney Public Library events, thus raising public awareness of this collaboration in partnership with the McKinney Public Library Foundation. This is a wonderful opportunity to continue this working relationship via marketing.

Metrics to evaluate success of marketing/promotional plan: Outline the metrics that will be used to evaluate overall success of the executed promotional plan. If funding is awarded, this should be included in the final report. (success in reaching new audiences, social media data, website analytics, etc).

Registration for event, pre-event interest metrics through social media platforms, and on-site headcount from door counters will be utilized. A successful reopening promotion will establish a repeatable marketing playbooks with advertisements, print materials and QR/trackable links, that can be reused for future signature library events and initiatives.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
- I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
- The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and, generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

What's New

Line 3a has been modified to clarify how a disregarded entity completes this line. An LLC that is a disregarded entity should check the appropriate box for the tax classification of its owner. Otherwise, it should check the "LLC" box and enter its appropriate tax classification.

New line 3b has been added to this form. A flow-through entity is required to complete this line to indicate that it has direct or indirect foreign partners, owners, or beneficiaries when it provides the Form W-9 to another flow-through entity in which it has an ownership interest. This change is intended to provide a flow-through entity with information regarding the status of its indirect foreign partners, owners, or beneficiaries, so that it can satisfy any applicable reporting requirements. For example, a partnership that has any indirect foreign partners may be required to complete Schedules K-2 and K-3. See the Partnership Instructions for Schedules K-2 and K-3 (Form 1065).

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS is giving you this form because they
