Dear Mayor Fuller and Residents of McKinney:

On behalf of the entire Allen community, we extend our deepest gratitude for the invaluable support provided by the City of McKinney during the tragic incident at the Allen Premium Outlet Mall on May 6, 2023. Your City's swift and selfless response truly exemplifies the spirit of solidarity and compassion that defines our neighboring cities.

In times of crisis, the strength of a community is measured by its ability to come together and support one another. Your first responders exhibited remarkable professionalism, courage, and dedication in their efforts to assist Allen's emergency services during this challenging ordeal.

We are profoundly grateful for the seamless coordination and collaboration between our organizations' emergency response teams. Your assistance played a crucial role in ensuring the safety and well-being of our residents, visitors, and businesses affected by the tragic events that unfolded that day.

Moreover, your unwavering support has been a source of comfort and reassurance for our community as we continue to heal from this traumatic experience. The solidarity demonstrated by McKinney's first responders serves as a shining example of the resilience and compassion that unites us in times of adversity.

On behalf of the City of Allen, we extend our heartfelt appreciation to Mayor Fuller, the McKinney City Council, and every individual who contributed to the relief effort. Your kindness, generosity, and unwavering commitment to serving others embody the true spirit of community.

As we move forward, let us continue to stand together as neighbors, supporting and uplifting one another in the face of adversity. Together, we are stronger, and together, we will overcome any challenge that comes our way.

With sincere gratitude and warm regards,

Baine L. Brooks
Mayor

NOMINATIONS

RECOMMENDATION STANDARDS

The nominations provided in this packet are the result of City Council preferencing and these scoring elements:

- For each board, candidates score 1 point for each Council preference received
- An incumbent scores 1 point if their name (or no other name) was listed for their replacement
- Candidates scoring at least 4 points were placed as the leading nominees for positions
- Incumbents receiving at least 4 points were prioritized over non-incumbents receiving more votes, for retaining a Regular seat and / or being promoted from Alternate to Regular
- Incumbents listed in red are members who have exceeded term limits
- Points for members who have resigned were not counted

These nominations are for informational purposes to assist the City Council with the Boards & Commissions Appointments Process.

Council action is required to confirm all appointments.
