Please provide a detailed narrative about your organization including years established, mission, goals, scope of services, staff, successes, contribution to community, etc.

The Collin County Historical Society was incorporated on December 5, 1973, for the purpose of encouraging the preservation of historical sites structures, and monuments in Collin County, Texas; to encourage careful and accurate research into the history of Collin County, Texas; to provide for the dissemination of knowledge in the heritage of Collin County, Texas to provide museums such as the Colln County History Museum (CCHM) for the collection of all types of objects of art and objects of historical value for public viewing.

The mission of the CCHM is to preserve and honor the past, connect with the present, and embrace the future. We are committed to the collection and preservation of the rich heritage and history of the people and events that helped shape McKinney and Collin County.

The CCHM fulfills the mission of the organization through the following goals:

- 1) To preserve and protect our cultural history for future generations
- 2) To disseminate historical information through our museum collections, archives, research library, and publications
- 3) To promote resources and educational programs that highlight the history of Collin County and Texas and their contributions to our nation
- 4) To improve intellectual and physical access to our information and museum collections
- 5) To leverage new technology resources to engage visitors in a meaningful way.

Currently, the museum has 4 part-time staff members.

- 1) Executive Director in charge of operations and exhibits
- 2) Membership Coordinator
- 3) Receptionist
- 4) Lead Tour Guide

The Membership Coordinator is funded through the Senior Community Service Employment Program and provided to non-profits by the State of Texas through the US Department of Labor. The other three positions are funded through the museum operations budget. The Board of Directors volunteers their time in various capacities such as speaking engagements and maintenance of the exhibits, building, and grounds. Additionally, there are approximately a dozen weekly volunteers providing research, preservation, archival organization, technical assistance, and guiding tours.

CCHM is an archival museum with historical artifacts, photographs, documents, diaries, manuscripts, historical maps, archival newspapers, and land records that provide valuable research information for genealogists, historians, authors, teachers, and students. The museum has a library collection of books dedicated to Collin County and Texas History. Docents also provide interactive educational programming for students across Collin County.

The museum is free and open to the public on Thursdays, Fridays, and Saturdays from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Private tours and interactive school tours can be scheduled Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 11 p.m. Special events are held throughout the year.

- 3) To promote resources and educational programs that highlight the history of Collin County and Texas and their contributions to our nation
- 4) To improve intellectual and physical access to our information and museum collections

5) To leverage new technology resources to engage visitors in a meaningful way Scope of Services

CCHM is an archival museum with historical artifacts, photographs, documents, diaries, manuscripts, historical maps, archival newspapers, and land records that provide valuable research information for genealogists, historians, authors, teachers and students. The museum has a library collection of books dedicated to Collin County and Texas History. Docents also provide interactive educational programming for students across Collin County.

The museum is free and open to the public Thursdays, Fridays, and Saturdays from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Private tours and interactive school tours can be scheduled Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 11 p.m. Special events are held throughout the year.

The new CCHM exhibit "Created in Collin County" highlights all things wonderful from McKinney. Draws destination travelers, creates a lasting bond to McKinney, and encourages return visits. Museum visitors include children who we encourage to value and support McKinney as they grow up. CCHM preserves and honors the past, connects with the present, and embraces the future.

Narratives, historic photos, artifacts, and set designs tell the stories of the famous people, innovation, diverse businesses and products, and entertainment that has come from Collin County. Our new exhibit logo will highlight that we are the "Collin County History Museum in McKinney." We feel that the addition of "in McKinney" best helps direct our visitors and promote McKinney.

McKinney is a great place to grow up, live, create, and build a business. The CCHM strives to celebrate all the wonderful things that have been "Created in Collin County" throughout the years by highlighting specific people, products, and events.

At 13 years old, Dickie Jones, who was born in McKinney, became the well-known voice of Disney's Pinocchio.

WWII hero and actor Audie Murphy was from Collin County and often visited McKinney.

Carroll Shelby, racecar driver and automobile designer, owned two businesses in McKinney: a chili factory and a wheel factory.

The television series Barney and Wishbone was filmed in Collin County with local talent.

The 1970's feature film Benji was filmed in McKinney.

Haystacks Calhoun, pioneer of entertainment wrestling, was born in McKinney. The CCHM regularly gets requests from wrestling enthusiasts for information about him and destination travel to his burial location.

There are countless successful athletes of note who have called Collin County home.

Many familiar products were also created in Collin, such as Coca Cola and Nehi.

Our native Bois d'Arc tree was prized by Native Americans for its strength and flexibility and is now cultivated in all 48 contiguous states.

In a clever variation on our theme, our new exhibit also features educators who "created" the environment that grew our most prominent citizens. Many have had schools named for them.

Innovator Maria Luisa Vega created the first bilingual school in the country here in McKinney.

The CCHM is known for innovative technology, and the "Created in Collin County" exhibit does not disappoint. The exclusive CCHM multimedia digital exhibit complements the new physical exhibit with interactive technology. It includes four digital tour guides on our popular patron iPads to enhance the exhibit.

Goals of the Created in Collin County Exhibit:

- Promote heritage tourism in McKinney
- Collaborate with Main Street McKinney and the McKinney Convention and Visitors Bureau for programming that draws visitors to McKinney

- Host and promote lectures, events, and activities to attract visitors and promote the rich heritage of McKinney

- Utilize technology to create an engaging and interactive exhibit experience to tell the history of McKinney

The CCHM Crated in Collin County exhibit is free to the public Thursdays, Fridays, and Saturdays from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

In 2024, the CCHM will premiere the "Carroll Shelby Experience," an all-new video exhibit on 2 two wrap-around screens highlighting the life and philosophy of Carroll Shelby, who created an iconic Texan lifestyle brand. With the help of the Shelby family, this video will inspire all ages. The Grand Opening will include the Shelby Cobra Association of Texas and their collectible automobiles and continue to draw enthusiasts and recognizable vehicles to McKinney. The video will be free to visitors and will be scheduled at the top of every hour on Thursdays, Fridays, and Saturdays 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Pat Rodgers is an award-winning living historian, sought-after speaker, and member of the Collin County Historical Society Board of Directors. She provides 12-15 programs for large groups throughout Collin County. Current programs include:

Running with Bonnie and Clyde: the Ralph Fultz Story

The Blackland Prairie Village of Lebanon and Frisco

The Clash of Legendary Warriors: The Texas Rangers and the Comanche Empire

Specific Marketing Plans and Budget

Provide a detailed marketing plan and budget for the event(s). Plan should also include promotional channels (print ads including publication names, social media, radio, posters, flyers, yard signs, etc.).

This itemized budget totaling $15,000 is for promotion and advertising for the CCHM exhibits "Created in Collin County" and the "Carroll Shelby Experience" for 2024.

$4,500 for Celebration Magazine advertising for "Created in Collin County" includes (6) bimonthly issues with a quarter page advertisement and a two page spread featuring stories about the history of Collin County and McKinney. Celebration Magazine publishes 180,000 free print issues annually, distributed to 75,000 organic subscribers, and are available in over 350 locations in DFW. Additionally, there are over 150,000 digital impressions (of the online version of the magazine) annually.

$6,000 for exclusive sponsorship of the monthly "Talkin' Texas" Daytripper travel podcast includes a personal recommendation by PBS television personality and travel influencer Chet Garner to visit the CCHM and McKinney. He highlights part of the new "Created in Collin County" exhibit at the top of every podcast. The CCHM wholly embraces his concept of day travel to McKinney from other cities. The PBS Daytripper television episode featuring McKinney, and the monthly Talkin' Texas podcasts continuously receive views on YouTube, where he has 65,000 subscribers.

$2,500 for marketing brochures and print advertising for "Created in Collin County" and the "Carroll Shelby" Experience" including production and printing for signage and promotion at visitors travel centers and for direct mail marketing.

$2,000 for digital marketing and optimization to increase internet visibility and connections that bring more visitors to CCHM and McKinney. CCHM will capitalize on new social media trends and opportunities to find potential visitors online, including Facebook, Instagram, Google, Yelp, and our website.

Dear Applicant:

Based on information supplied, and assuming your operations will be as stated in your application for recognition of exemption, we have determined you are exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

We have further determined that, as indicated in your application, you are a private foundation within the meaning of section 509(a) of the Code. In this letter, we are not determining whether you are an operating foundation as defined in section 4942(j)(3).

If your purposes, character, or method of operation change, please let us know so we can consider the effect of the change on your exempt status. Also, you should inform us of all changes in your name or address.

As of January 1, 1984, you are liable for taxes under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (social security taxes) on remuneration of $100 or more you pay to each of your employees during a calendar year. You are not liable for the tax imposed under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act (FUTA). However, since you are a private foundation, you are subject to excise taxes under Chapter 42 of the Code. You also may be subject to other Federal excise taxes. If you have any questions about excise, employment, or other Federal taxes, please let us know.

Donors may deduct contributions to you as provided in section 170 of the Code. Bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts to you or for your use are deductible for Federal estate and gift tax purposes if they meet the applicable provisions of sections 2055, 2106, and 2522 of the Code.

You are required to file Form 990-PF, Return of Private Foundation or Section 4947(a)(1) Trust Treated as a Private Foundation. Form 990-PF must be filed by the 15th day of the fifth month after the end of your annual accounting period. The law late, unless there is reasonable cause for the delay.

You are not required to file Federal income tax returns unless you are subject to the tax on unrelated business income under section 511 of the Code. If you are subject to this tax, you must file an income tax return on Form 990-T, Exempt Organization Business Income Tax Return. In this letter, we are not determining whether any of your present or proposed activities are unrelated trade or business as defined in section 513 of the Code.

You need an employer identification number even if you have no employees. If an employer identification number was not entered on your application, a number will be assigned to you and you will be advised of it. Please use that number on all returns you file and in all correspondence with the Internal Revenue Service.

Because this letter could help resolve any questions about your exempt status and private foundation status, you should keep it in your permanent records.

If you have any questions, please contact the person whose name and telephone number are shown in the heading of this letter.

Sincerely yours,

Glenn Cagle
District Director

Requester's name and address (optional)

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1. Also see What Name and Number To Give the Requester for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
- I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
- The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions for Part II, later.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)

- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What Is Backup Withholding, later.
