

WHEREAS, the City of McKinney, Texas, values housing and community development, leveraging federal, state, and local funding to enhance quality of life, and

WHEREAS, the month of April is dedicated to recognizing these efforts, and the City of McKinney joins the National Community Development Association (NCDCA), the U.S. Conference of Mayors, and the CDBG Coalition to recognize National Community Development Week, and

WHEREAS, the Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) Program has existed since 1975 to assist local governments with resources, to develop and provide safe affordable housing, create suitable living environments, and expand economic opportunities to low to moderate income households, and

WHEREAS, the City of McKinney recognizes the beneficial impact the CDBG and HOME programs, in addressing important human service needs, such as housing rehabilitation, homebuyer assistance, child services, infrastructure, transportation, senior services, Fair Housing, Emergency Rental Assistance, and Homelessness Prevention, and

WHEREAS, the City of McKinney also utilizes Affordable Housing, Neighborhood, and Transit Services to benefit our growing community. To that effect, city and community leaders will host the first McKinney Affordable Housing Summit on April 13, to discuss solutions to the city's workforce housing shortage. We take this time to thank our stakeholders for their dedicated commitment.
