Please provide a detailed narrative about your organization including year established, mission, goals, scope of services, staff, successes, contribution to community, etc.

I.a. Mission

MillHouse Foundation is a 501(c)(3) tax exempt nonprofit corporation established in January of 2019 to promote small business women in creative fields. Our mission is for women to flourish by providing opportunities to showcase their work and enhance income opportunities. The Foundation manages festivals, markets, a large art gallery in the Cotton Mill Atrium Hallway, and collaborative events with other local and international entities using our operating model: Artists Supporting Artists. Local artists set aside their business practices to lead MillHouse events to support fellow creatives. We provide stipends as direct compensation. MillHouse also is a founding member of the new Texas Art Alliance.

I.b. Strategic Goal

Our goal as an organization is to enhance cultural opportunities in our community, while providing opportunities for micro-business owners to not only grow skills, but showcase and sell their work, providing economic stability for their families and the surrounding community. Our focus is women, but all are invited to participate in our festivals and events.

I.d. Scope of Services

- 1) Talent Showcase: Community-focused festivals and events to showcase products and offer enhanced revenue opportunities to participants by increasing visibility and sales, and attracting new customers. Programs include art and artisan festivals, and gallery exhibitions.
- 2) Art/Product Spotlight: Opportunities to highlight creative work through Gallery exhibits, Public Art, and social media promotions. Programs include gallery exhibitions, public art murals and open studio tours.
- 3) Collaboration: Grow creative impact through collaborative projects and activities with local McKinney creatives and organizations, as well as international collaborations. Programs include the Texas Art and Music Guild's McKinney Art Studio Tour, City-sponsored Arts in Bloom art demonstrations, International Postcard Art Exhibition, Community Care of North Texas Chalk It Up, Art in Action Women's Guide with Abba's Pride, Landon Winery's Art and Wine Stroll, and artist-led group collaborations.

Each of these priorities offer creative, entrepreneurial women the opportunity to learn, grow, collaborate, and showcase their ideas, products, and services.

Our core beliefs are centered on the following guiding principles:

- 1) Every woman is an entrepreneur at heart, awaiting encouragement, guidance, and resources to awaken and flourish.
- 2) Contributions by small business women deserve elevation, recognition, and resources.
- 3) Women, as artists and entrepreneurs, create economic impact with social benefits

I.e. Staff and Volunteers

MillHouse Foundation Staff: Beth Beck, PhD, Executive Director, Volunteer; Dana Brock, Art Director, Consultant; Aimee Woolverton, Creative Services, Consultant

Volunteers: Gail Delger, Lisa Temple, Kathy Elliott, Robin Pedrero, Mary Hannigan, Beth Hubbert, Cindy Taylor, and Cindy Gilstrap

I.f. Successes

We've hosted thirteen multi-day fine art festivals at the McKinney Cotton Mill since 2019: August 2019, February 2020, February 2021, August 2021, February 2022, August 2022, February 2023, August 2023, February 2024, August 2024, February 2025, and August 2025, February 2026. We expanded ArtFest in 2023 to include the Atrium Hallway at the McKinney Cotton Mill.

For artisans, we've hosted three two-day outdoor Makers Markets in 2020 at a time when all festivals were canceled. We reinstituted Makers Market in 2023 with one-day indoor Second Saturday events in July, September, December in the Atrium Hallway. Each festival and market was at capacity. In 2024, 2025, and 2026 we continued our indoor Makers Markets with nine markets.

For muralists and musicians, we've hosted two-day outdoor mural festivals on the south lawn of the Cotton Mill in 2022, 2023, and 2024. The first event included a celebrated cellist performing on the Friday evening VIP reception and a solo guitarist throughout the festival weekend. The second MuralFest featured a full sound stage lineup with solo performers, trios, and full bands on stage in the Tupps facility adjacent to the festival grounds. The third festival in 2024 featured a full line-up of musicians performing on the McKinney Mobile Stage on the south lawn behind MillHouse at the Cotton Mill. We've hosted 41 artists over the last three years to paint permanent exterior murals on the Cotton Mill facility. In addition, we hosted ten mobile muralists who painted 48x60 in canvases, which were auctioned to the public. In 2024, we added ten 48"x96" MDO mobile murals which were also auctioned to the public, as well as a commissioned artist painting a vintage trailer design. We hosted food trucks and local McKinney vendors. Also in 2024, MillHouse supported the McKinney Art Commission mural painted by artists Dana Brock and Gail Delger at the east exterior wall of the Cotton Mill, facing the Encore Wire facility. MillHouse hosted the International Postcard Art Exhibit at the McKinney Cotton Mill with more than 500 original artworks from contributors around the world. Art lovers came from as far as Norway, California, Colorado and more to attend the opening reception and sale. The next event will be held in The Hague, Netherlands.

Chalk It Up

Nonprofit Community Care North Texas and MillHouse co-created a sidewalk chalk party for low-income apartment complex residents in the east McKinney neighborhood adjacent to the Cotton Mill. The purpose: infuse the children and community with creativity and encouragement. MillHouse provided artists, original sidewalk designs, and sidewalk chalk for the neighborhood block party. This annual event will take place each summer.

Landon Art-Wine Stroll and MPAC Gallery Exhibition: MillHouse is partnering with Landon Winery and the City of McKinney for an Art-Wine Stroll in Downtown McKinney, featuring MillHouse artists. This annual event will take place in each Fall.

Art in Action Women’s Guild Project:

MillHouse is partnering with Abbas Pride to teach marketable skills to Abbas Pride grannies/guardians in townships in Gauteng, South Africa, located 50 miles from Abba’s Pride headquarters in central Pretoria. The guardians care for orphaned or abandoned children in under-resourced communities with informal housing, lack of food and basic necessities. The MillHouse team teaches women skills such as jewelry-making, sewing, embroidering, knitting to create crafts for sale at local markets.

I.g. Contribution to community

We believe the creative micro-business owners in the community, who participate in MillHouse events, help fuel our local economy. As their income-potential rises, so does the community as they invest their well-earned dollars at the local grocery stores, gas stations, restaurants, schools, and other local establishments.

We invite local, regional, and international creatives to engage and participate in MillHouse programs, with the intention of building and sustaining a vibrant, creative, prosperous community atmosphere to attract new visitors, residents, businesses, artisans, and foodies to the historic Cotton Mill Arts District.

We also offer the community an opportunity to come meet artists, makers, and muralists at each of our events, including our participation in the McKinney Art Studio Tour and artist demos at the City’s Arts in Bloom festival. In addition, families and friends can enjoy our outdoor mural festival with food, music, and activities for the kids.

Noteworthy recognitions or awards in the last two years

We were chosen by the International PostCard Art Exhibition board as the recipient of their 2024 exhibition, which was held at the Cotton Mill. MillHouse received a 16-page spread in the Art of Business section of the 2024 Summer edition of Where Women Create magazine. Dr. Beth Beck, Aimee Wooverton, and Dana Brock were featured as McKinney Gazette Women of Inspiration. Beth Beck was selected for the 2026 Leadership McKinney Class and was awarded the Buzz Kolbe Leadership McKinney scholarship. We received our first grant through the Texas Commission for the Arts, and feel every grant we receive from Visit McKinney, McKinney Arts Commission and MCDC is noteworthy recognition. We appreciate continued support through these grants to enable us to help other creatives in our community and beyond.

How does event showcase McKinney for tourism and/or business development?

The Atrium Gallery exhibitions are designed to position McKinney as a regional arts and cultural destination while supporting economic development through tourism, hospitality, and commerce. Located inside the historic McKinney Cotton Mill, the Atrium Gallery offers a large-scale immersive art experience unlike any other in the city, featuring large scale original artworks measuring 48"x48" and 48"x60" displayed throughout the historic Atrium Hallway.

The exhibitions attract artists and audiences from across Texas, expanding McKinney’s visibility beyond the local market and encouraging cultural tourism. Through targeted advertising and promotional campaigns funded by this grant, MillHouse plans to draw visitors to McKinney specifically to experience the exhibitions, explore the Cotton Mill Arts District, dine locally, shop, and stay overnight in the community. Visit McKinney already promotes MillHouse as a creative destination and lodging partner location, reinforcing the area’s growing reputation as a hub for arts and entrepreneurship.

The Atrium Gallery also supports business development by creating professional exhibition opportunities for working artists and creative entrepreneurs. The exhibitions increase exposure for Texas artists, generate artwork sales, and create additional traffic for nearby businesses, restaurants, coffee shops, retail spaces, and events hosted within the Cotton Mill campus and surrounding downtown McKinney area. As the only large-scale gallery experience of its kind in McKinney, the Atrium Gallery strengthens the city’s cultural identity while contributing to the local economy through arts-driven tourism and creative industry growth.

Does the event support a non-profit (other than applicant)?

No

What percentage of revenue will be donated (indicate gross or net)?

60% of art sales will be given to the artist.

Expected total attendance and how calculations were made.

Expected attendance for each Atrium Gallery exhibition is estimated at 3,500–6,000 visitors. This estimate is based on existing Cotton Mill traffic, public hallway visitation, Makers Market attendance during the exhibition period, coffee shop weekend traffic, and projected attendance for related Meet the Artist events. Each exhibition is expected to run approximately three months and overlap with three MillHouse Makers Markets, which typically draw 500–1,000 attendees per market, creating an estimated 1,500–3,000 potential exhibition visitors from market traffic alone. In addition, MillHouse regularly sees an estimated 20 visitors per day walking through the Atrium Hallway to explore the building, resulting in approximately 1,800 additional visitors over a 90-day exhibition period. White Box Roastery also attracts approximately 500 weekend visitors, and while not all coffee shop guests will visit the exhibition, a conservative 15–25% crossover rate provides an additional estimated 900–1,500 visitors per exhibition cycle. Additional attendance is expected through Meet the Artist events, opening receptions, artist networks, regional advertising, social media promotion, and tourism/event listings. Paid advertising funded by this grant will expand awareness beyond existing Cotton Mill traffic and help draw additional visitors from McKinney, North Texas, and select Texas metro areas.

Expected percentage of attendees coming from outside of McKinney.

Based on historical mobile device data from MillHouse Foundation festivals, approximately 70% of attendees originate from outside McKinney. While the Atrium Gallery exhibition program is newer and more niche than our established festivals, we conservatively estimate that 40–60% of exhibition and Meet the Artist attendees will come from outside McKinney, particularly from the greater Dallas-Fort Worth region and participating artists’ home communities across Texas.

Total attendance from previous event(s) (if applicable)

Describe the TARGET AUDIENCE to include:

- Demographics (i.e. families, young adults, seniors, all ages, ethnic diversity)
- Diversity of interests (i.e. arts, culture, recreation, sports, shopping, etc.)

The exhibitions appeal to people interested in:

- Art and photography
- Local events and things to do
- Shopping and supporting artists
- Historic buildings and unique places
- Weekend outings with friends or family
- Coffee shops, dining, and exploring McKinney
- Interior design and home décor inspiration
- Meeting artists and learning about their work
- Texas history and storytelling
- Creative businesses and entrepreneurship

Because the Atrium Gallery is located within the active Cotton Mill campus, the exhibitions also engage visitors already attending workshops, studios, photography sessions, coffee shop gatherings, and other creative business activities, creating crossover participation between arts, culture, commerce, and tourism.

Please provide funding sources and dollar amounts associated with each of the following.

Sponsorship Revenue	0
Registration Fees	5500

Metrics to evaluate success of event. Outline the metrics that will be used to evaluate success of the proposed event (attendance, reach from across targeted audiences, funds raised, tickets sold, etc). If funding is awarded, a final report will be required summarizing success in achieving objectives outlined for the event.

- Website visits to exhibition pages and event pages
- Social media reach, engagement, shares, saves, and video views
- Paid advertising impressions and click-through data
- Artist participation from outside McKinney
- Press coverage and online calendar placements
- Growth in social media followers and newsletter subscribers during campaign periods

-Voluntary artist sales reporting and artist inquiries

Because the Atrium Gallery is located within a public-access corridor of the Cotton Mill Arts District, exact attendance counts are not practical to measure. Success will instead be evaluated through a combination of digital engagement metrics, event participation, tourism reach indicators, artist participation, and visitor interaction data.

Provide a comprehensive narrative that includes:

- Mission, goals, planning and execution timeline
- Planned activities (pre-event and during event)
- History of past or similar events
- Safety/security plan, parking/traffic management plan, weather contingency, event staffing plan

The mission of the Atrium Gallery exhibitions is to establish McKinney as a recognized destination for large-scale contemporary art experiences while supporting Texas artists, cultural tourism, and the creative economy. Through rotating public exhibitions inside the historic Cotton Mill Arts District, the program creates accessible opportunities for residents and visitors to engage with professional visual art in a unique historic architecture. The natural light coming from the original air vents enhances the experience.

The goals of the Atrium Gallery program are to:

Increase cultural tourism to McKinney by promoting the Cotton Mill Arts District as a regional arts destination

Showcase professional artists from McKinney, North Texas, and across state and beyond.

Create large-scale, visually impactful exhibitions not currently available elsewhere in McKinney

Encourage visitors to explore local restaurants, shops, lodging, and businesses while attending exhibitions and related events

Support working artists through exhibition opportunities, artist promotion, and artwork sales

Expand public access to visual arts through free exhibitions and Meet the Artist events

Strengthen McKinney's reputation as a city that values arts, culture, creativity, and historic spaces

Planning and execution for each exhibition cycle includes artist outreach and exhibition development, curatorial review and selection, marketing campaign development, installation planning, press and tourism promotion, Meet the Artist programming, and ongoing public engagement throughout the exhibition period. Promotional efforts funded through this grant will focus on expanding regional awareness and attracting visitors from outside McKinney through targeted digital advertising, tourism outreach, media placements, social media campaigns, and event listings.

Safety/Security plan:

MillHouse McKinney prioritizes the safety, comfort, and security of all artists and visitors during every event held within the historic McKinney Cotton Mill. Each event follows an established set of safety and emergency protocols in coordination with the Cotton Mill property management.

Facility and Access Control

The building is equipped with:

Monitored fire and alarm systems maintained by Cotton Mill Partners.

Clearly marked exits and emergency lighting compliant with City of McKinney fire codes.

ADA-accessible entryways and restrooms throughout the event area.

Controlled access points: only designated entrances are used for public entry, while vendor load-in and load-out areas are staffed by MillHouse team members to prevent unauthorized access.

Staffing and Security Oversight

The MillHouse Festival Manager oversees operations and coordinates safety protocols before, during, and after each event.

Event volunteers are briefed on emergency procedures and communication channels.

The Cotton Mill property manager and security personnel are on call throughout the event day.

Emergency Procedures

Emergency exits and routes are clearly marked.

A first aid kit is maintained at MillHouse

In the event of a building evacuation, participants will be directed to gather in Parking Lot B, the designated assembly area.

Weather and Environmental Preparedness

All events occur indoors, providing protection from wind, rain, or excessive heat.

Severe weather alerts are monitored via NOAA and City of McKinney notifications. Should conditions require, the event manager will suspend operations and coordinate with building management to direct guests to safe interior shelter areas.

Insurance and Liability

MillHouse McKinney and Cotton Mill Partners maintain property and liability coverage for all facility operations. Each participating artisan or vendor signs a participation agreement acknowledging personal responsibility for their materials, equipment, and conduct, and releasing the organizers from liability beyond standard coverage.

Traffic Management:

Traffic Flow and Access

The McKinney Cotton Mill property has a single main entrance and exit on Elm Street, which accommodates two-way traffic and allows for clear entry and exit routes.

Pedestrian Safety

All event entrances are ADA accessible, with paved walkways connecting parking areas to the indoor event spaces.

Vendor load-in is completed prior to public opening hours to minimize vehicle-pedestrian overlap.

Event Staffing Plan:

MillHouse Staff Members handle artist check-in, booth assignments, facility coordination with Cotton Mill Partners, and direct communication with building management and security.

A Designated Event Manager serves as the point of contact for city officials, emergency personnel, and building representatives during the event.

Volunteer Engagement

MillHouse McKinney partners with Volunteer McKinney, a city-supported community platform, to recruit and schedule volunteers for each festival. Volunteers receive orientation prior to their shift to ensure familiarity with event flow, safety procedures, and guest interaction standards.

Volunteer roles include:
Greeters: Welcome attendees and provide general event information for the Meet the Artist Receptions.

Describe how your event will showcase McKinney for tourism and economic development for residents and visitors (shopping and dining in McKinney, hotel stays, participation in other McKinney activities, etc.)

The Atrium Gallery exhibitions are designed to position McKinney as a regional arts and cultural destination by drawing visitors to the historic Cotton Mill Arts District for immersive large-scale visual art experiences. Through rotating exhibitions featuring artists from McKinney, North Texas, and across Texas, the program encourages both residents and out-of-town visitors to explore McKinney as a place for arts, culture, dining, shopping, and entertainment.

The exhibitions and related Meet the Artist events will bring additional traffic to the Cotton Mill campus and surrounding McKinney businesses, including restaurants, coffee shops, retail stores, galleries, boutiques, and entertainment venues. Visitors attending exhibitions are encouraged to extend their experience by exploring Downtown McKinney, shopping local businesses, dining in the area, and participating in other cultural and community activities throughout the city.

Because participating artists are anticipated to travel from across Texas, the exhibitions also create opportunities for overnight stays, repeat visitation, and expanded regional awareness of McKinney as a creative destination. Promotional efforts funded through this grant will specifically target audiences outside McKinney through digital advertising, tourism listings, regional media outreach, and social media campaigns designed to increase destination-driven visitation.

The Atrium Gallery further supports economic development by strengthening the Cotton Mill Arts District as an active creative hub that attracts artists, art buyers, tourists, photographers, workshop participants, and cultural visitors throughout the year. As the only large-scale public gallery experience of its kind in McKinney, the exhibitions contribute to the city’s growing reputation as a center for arts, creativity, and cultural tourism.

Provide a detailed and itemized promotional plan and budget for the event(s). Plan should include promotional channels (print ads including publication names, social media, radio, posters, flyers, yard signs, etc.)

Promotional Channel	Budget
Media Content and Design	3000
Meta Advertising	8500
Other local calendar fees	500

Event Marketing Plan and Budget Attachment

 Marketing Plan for Atrium Gallery.pdf

Total Promotional Budget 12000

Does your marketing plan include components specifically designed to promote your event(s) within the ethnically diverse communities that call McKinney home? Please share details.

Yes. The Atrium Gallery marketing plan includes outreach strategies designed to reach the broad and ethnically diverse communities that call McKinney and the greater North Texas region home. MillHouse Foundation utilizes highly targeted digital advertising tools that allow marketing campaigns to reach audiences across varied demographic groups, interests, geographic areas, and cultural communities throughout the region. Marketing efforts will include: Social media advertising campaigns targeted throughout diverse North Texas communities Multicultural audience targeting through Meta advertising tools and regional interest categories Promotion through widely used community event calendars and public platforms accessible to all audiences Partnerships and cross-promotion with participating artists from varied backgrounds and communities across Texas Inclusive visual marketing materials representing a broad range of artistic styles, perspectives, and audiences Free public access to exhibitions and Meet the Artist events to reduce barriers to participation Promotion through community-sharing networks, local organizations, and culturally diverse social audiences connected to participating artists Because the exhibitions are hosted in a free, public-access environment within the Cotton Mill Arts District, the program is designed to be welcoming and accessible to residents and visitors of all backgrounds, ages, and communities. The exhibitions encourage broad participation through universally engaging themes centered around art, creativity, landscape, atmosphere, texture, and visual storytelling rather than niche or exclusionary subject matter.

What percentage of the total marketing budget does the grant represent?

50% Because the Atrium Gallery exhibitions are free to the public, the program does not generate direct revenue to support marketing expenses. MillHouse Foundation's existing MCDC grant funding is designated specifically for festival promotion. Without additional funding support, exhibition marketing efforts would be limited to unpaid organic social media promotion and would not include the paid advertising necessary to expand regional reach, attract tourism audiences, and increase visibility outside McKinney.

Marketing lessons learned from past events (if applicable).

Social media and Instagram reels can be shared and reposted by the participating artists and interested shoppers. We have exponentially increased our reach for our ads using reels instead of static content. Video content is shared and interacted with more than images. Digital media and print ads work well and offer statistics on viewership. Printed flyers and cards are costly and create waste.

If applicable, please include examples of past marketing efforts (screen shots of ads, posters, social posts, radio text, etc.)

This is included in the marketing plan.

Metrics to evaluate success of marketing/promotional plan: Outline the metrics that will be used to evaluate overall success of the executed promotional plan. If funding is awarded, this should be included in the final report. (success in reaching new audiences, social media data, website analytics, etc).

Marketing success will be evaluated through:

- Social media reach and engagement
- Paid advertising impressions and click-through rates
- Website traffic and exhibition page visits
- Meet the Artist attendance
- Media placements and press coverage
- Growth in social media followers

-Regional audience reach outside McKinney

Because the Atrium Gallery operates within a public-access corridor of the Cotton Mill Arts District, success will be measured through a combination of digital analytics, event participation, tourism reach, and audience engagement indicators rather than direct door counts.

Please provide:

- Verification of organization’s status (IRS letter of determination, W9, etc.)
- Most recent two years of financial statement including organization’s budget and profit/loss statement (Audited is preferred or written explanation if audit not available.)

Dear Applicant:

We're pleased to tell you we determined you're exempt from federal income tax under Internal Revenue Code (IRC) Section 501(c)(3). Donors can deduct contributions they make to you under IRC Section 170. You're also qualified to receive tax deductible bequests, devises, transfers or gifts under Section 2055, 2106, or 2522. This letter could help resolve questions on your exempt status. Please keep it for your records.

Organizations exempt under IRC Section 501(c)(3) are further classified as either public charities or private foundations. We determined you're a public charity under the IRC Section listed at the top of this letter.

If we indicated at the top of this letter that you're required to file Form 990/990-EZ/990-N, our records show you're required to file an annual information return (Form 990 or Form 990-EZ) or electronic notice (Form 990-N, the e-Postcard). If you don't file a required return or notice for three consecutive years, your exempt status will be automatically revoked.

If we indicated at the top of this letter that an addendum applies, the enclosed addendum is an integral part of this letter.

For important information about your responsibilities as a tax-exempt organization, go to www.irs.gov/charities. Enter "4221-PC" in the search bar to view Publication 4221-PC, Compliance Guide for 501(c)(3) Public Charities, which describes your recordkeeping, reporting, and disclosure requirements.

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

What's New

Line 3a has been modified to clarify how a disregarded entity completes this line. An LLC that is a disregarded entity should check the appropriate box for the tax classification of its owner. Otherwise, it should check the "LLC" box and enter its appropriate tax classification.

New line 3b has been added to this form. A flow-through entity is required to complete this line to indicate that it has direct or indirect foreign partners, owners, or beneficiaries when it provides the Form W-9 to another flow-through entity in which it has an ownership interest. This change is intended to provide a flow-through entity with information regarding the status of its indirect foreign partners, owners, or beneficiaries, so that it can satisfy any applicable reporting requirements. For example, a partnership that has any indirect foreign partners may be required to complete Schedules K-2 and K-3. See the Partnership Instructions for Schedules K-2 and K-3 (Form 1065).

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS is giving you this form because they
