

LAB report – Programming Department

July 16, 2020

- Summer Reading update
 - Beanstack registrations (as of July 13)
 - Youth = 492
 - Teen = 149
 - Adult = 126
 - Programming attendance trends
 - Youth programs smaller than normal, with those attending expressing support
 - Adult programs Book clubs, adult craft meetups
 - Facebook programming
 - Series highlights
 - Staff and patron impressions of Zoom
- Fall planning
 - Programs to start season in virtual format with contingent flip to in-person
 - Possible outdoor programs, new spaces at JJG
 - Micro-credentials, make-and-take crafts, and other new programming ideas
 - Library playlist to appear on City YouTube channel
 - Push toward “blended” styles of programming