MPO's ORIGIN & HISTORY

The McKinney Philharmonic Orchestra was established in May 2012 in Denton, Texas, under the leadership of Artistic Director Jason Lim. Originally known as the Odysseus Chamber Orchestra, it comprises professional classical musicians from the Dallas/Fort Worth area who share a commitment to fostering a vibrant community through the power of music and the arts. Since its inception, the orchestra has achieved remarkable milestones. Its debut performance in 2012 featured esteemed local soloists, including Christopher Deane, a renowned Professor of Percussion at the University of North Texas.

Building on this early success, Artistic Director Jason Lim commissioned the world premiere of Brad Robin's captivating composition, "Breathe." In 2019, the orchestra performed the highly anticipated US premiere of "Musica Con Cello" by Pavel Karmanov, featuring the brilliant Tess Crowther as the principal cellist and soloist. Additionally, the orchestra embarked on groundbreaking collaborations, including a full ballet production of Prokofiev's enchanting "Peter and the Wolf" with the Denton City Contemporary Ballet, a mesmerizing North Texas premiere performance of Igor Stravinsky's "A Soldier's Tale" with Amity Perry and Company, an extraordinary showcase of Astor Piazzolla's Tango music in partnership with world-renowned double bassist Jeff Bradetich, and a captivating collaboration with legendary guitarist Andy Timmons. The orchestra even shared the stage with the Grammy Award-winning Polka band, Brave Combo, in 2018.

Today, the McKinney Philharmonic has expanded its concert season to encompass up to seven subscription concerts, featuring an innovative and diverse array of series, including Pops, Family, Chamber Music, Recital, and Classical performances. The orchestra's programming has gained national recognition, with Artistic Director Jason Lim being honored with the prestigious 2021 American Prize in Orchestral Programming/Vytautas Marijosius Memorial Award in the professional division.

Despite its relatively short history, the orchestra has garnered an increasing national reputation as an emerging ensemble, earning second and third prizes in the American Prize Competition for professional orchestras in 2014 and 2015, respectively. In 2016, the orchestra received the esteemed Ernst Bacon Memorial Award for its outstanding performances of American Music. Beyond its artistic endeavors, the orchestra actively supports local service clubs, schools, and community events. Moreover, the orchestra has expanded its outreach efforts by offering free chamber music series concerts, hosting amenity concerts in neighborhoods, conducting TEKS-aligned educational school tour performances, and collaborating with the Arts and Music Guild to organize the Summer Music Intensives—a week-long music workshop for middle and high school orchestra students.

In 2017, the organization launched the Greater North Texas Youth Orchestra, thereby enhancing its mission. Members of the McKinney Philharmonic Orchestra serve as mentors to the youth orchestra students, providing them with valuable knowledge and experiences to support their musical aspirations and future careers. The youth orchestra benefits from a range of programs, including the "Mentorship Program," which enables exceptional high school orchestra students to rehearse and perform alongside the McKinney Philharmonic Orchestra in subscription concerts. Additionally, the "Side-by-side" program brings together the youth orchestras and the McKinney Philharmonic Orchestra in an annual collaboration, while the "Concerto Competition" offers an exciting opportunity for young musicians to showcase their talent. In 2019, the organization introduced the Celtic String Ensemble, directed by Keyreel Raskolenko, the Principal 2nd Violinist. This unique program allows students to explore traditional music by ear, offering them a rare and enriching educational experience. In 2023, the GNTYO has expanded to three orchestras to meet the needs of various ages and abilities, and to expand the potential progression for the area's most talented youth.

To better reflect its growing ties with and support from the City of McKinney, the organization changed its name to the McKinney Philharmonic Orchestra (MPO) in 2019. We have undertaken a rebrand in 2023 and are enthusiastically focused on growing awareness of our organization to better fulfill our Mission.

Total Promotional Budget 15000

Marketing lessons learned from past (what worked and what did not).

We learnt that we have the reach and we have followers. The challenge is to in the programming. We learnt that even if we spend more on a specific concert because we though the programming will attract the people, if the interest is not there it is rather difficult to persuade people to come to our concerts. For example, this season we progrmaaed a Western Swing concert. We doubled our spending, created more ads with soundtracks, promoted an ad on KHYI and the turnout was underwhelming. Our classical concerts ended up doing better than this concert.

How will you measure success of your event and marketing campaign? (attendance, website hits, social media indicators, etc.)

The one most important factor is balancing our budget at the ned of the season. Although we have successfully done that for the last 5 seasons, we have enjoyed many seasons of surpluses. With the lack of financial resources in McKinney, our surpluses have enable us to be competitive with orchestra in the likes of Plano Symphony and Richardson Symphony.

We alos set a baseline projected numbers for our audience attendance. By meeting or surpassing our projections, we consider this to be a highly successful season.

Please include examples of past marketing efforts (screen shots of ads, posters, social posts, radio text, etc.)

WELCOME TO H&R BLOCK®

Thank you for choosing H&R BLOCK®. If you are having your taxes prepared, and you are at an office operated by HRB Tax Group, Inc. ("HRB"), your tax return will be prepared by HRB. If you are at a franchised H&R BLOCK® office, your return will be prepared by an independently owned and operated franchisee ("Franchisee"). In either case, this Client Service Agreement ("CSA") explains what to expect from your tax preparer and from other companies that may provide you products and services, and what is needed from you so they can provide great service. This CSA contains an Arbitration Agreement, the terms of which are set forth below.

If you are having your taxes prepared, your tax preparer will (1) interview you to learn details that affect your taxes, and (2) ask you for documents to help accurately record your income, credits or deductions. You agree to provide information related to all products and services you receive, including information that affects your tax situation, and to verify the accuracy of this information. If you discover that you did not provide complete and accurate information, you agree to file an amended return. Your tax preparer can prepare any amendment for you, but there may be an additional charge. The use and disclosure of information you provide to H&R BLOCK® is governed by the Privacy Notice provided to you. You may request a copy of our most recent Privacy Notice from any office, or you may access a copy at www.hrblock.com.

CONSENT TO USE AND DISCLOSE

You authorize HRB to use and disclose to its affiliate, H&R Block Personalized Services, LLC, all tax return information from your 2023 tax return and information regarding how long you have been an H&R BLOCK® client, so that we can develop, offer, and provide products and services tailored to or that may interest you, including for example: bookkeeping, payroll, and accounting services; tax planning advice based on your particular tax situation; products and services customized to you; updates regarding tax law changes and how they may impact future returns; new or improved products and services; and state and federal tax audit support services.

H&R Block Personalized Services may use service providers and business partners to accomplish these tasks. By signing this CSA, you are giving HRB permission to use or disclose your information as shown above through July 31, 2027. At any time, you may call 1-800-HRBLOCK to cancel your consent for any authorized use, and such cancellation will not have any effect on H&R BLOCK®'s ability or willingness to provide the contracted services.

ARBITRATION IF A DISPUTE ARISES ("ARBITRATION AGREEMENT")

1. Scope of Arbitration Agreement. You and the H&R Block Parties agree that all disputes and claims between you and the H&R Block Parties shall be resolved through binding individual arbitration unless you opt out of this Arbitration Agreement using the process explained below. However, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, either you or the H&R Block Parties may elect that an individual claim be decided in small claims court, as long as it is brought and maintained as an individualized claim and is not removed or appealed to a court of general jurisdiction. All issues are for the arbitrator to decide, except that issues relating to the arbitrability of disputes and the validity, enforceability, and scope of this Arbitration Agreement, including the interpretation of and compliance with sections 2, 4, and 6 below, shall be decided by a court and not an arbitrator. The terms "H&R Block Parties" or "we" or "us" in this Arbitration Agreement include HRB, Emerald Financial Services, LLC, and Franchisee, along with their predecessors, successors, and assigns, and each of the past, present, and future direct or indirect parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, directors, agents, employees, and franchisees of any of them. The term "you" in this Arbitration Agreement includes the business/entity taxpayer and its predecessors, successors, officers, directors, agents, and employees.

Arbitration Opt Out: You may opt out of this Arbitration Agreement within 30 days after you sign this CSA by filling out the form at www.hrblock.com/goto/businessoptout, or by sending a signed letter to Arbitration Opt Out, P.O. Box 32818, Kansas City, MO 64171. The letter should include your business/entity name, the name of your authorized representative submitting the opt out, the address of your principal place of business, the first five digits of your Federal Employer Identification Number, and the words "Reject Arbitration." If you opt out of this Arbitration Agreement, any prior arbitration agreement shall remain in force and effect.

2. Commencing Arbitration. You or we may commence an arbitration proceeding only if you and we do not reach an agreement to resolve the dispute or claim during the Informal Resolution Period (defined below).

a. Pre-Arbitration Notice of Dispute. A party who intends to seek arbitration must first mail a written Notice of Dispute ("Notice") to the other party. The Notice to the H&R Block Parties should be addressed to: H&R Block-Legal Department, Attention: Notice of Dispute, One H&R Block Way, Kansas City, MO 64105. The Notice to you will be sent to the last known address on file with the H&R Block Parties. The Notice must be on an individual basis and include all of the following:

(1) the claimant's name, address, telephone number, and e-mail address; (2) the nature or basis of the dispute or claim; (3) the specific relief sought; and (4) the claimant's authorized representative's signature.

b. Informal Settlement Conference. After the Notice containing all of the information required above is received, within 60 days either party may request an individualized discussion (by telephone or videoconference) regarding informal resolution of the dispute (“Informal Settlement Conference”). If timely requested, the parties will work together in good faith to select a mutually agreeable time for the Informal Settlement Conference. You and our business representative must both personally participate in a good-faith effort to settle the dispute without the need to proceed with arbitration. The requirement of personal participation in an Informal Settlement Conference may be waived only if both you and we agree in writing. Any counsel representing you or us may also participate; however, if you have retained counsel, a signed statement is required by law to authorize the H&R Block Parties to disclose your confidential tax and account records to your counsel. Any applicable statute of limitations will be tolled for the claims and relief set forth in the Notice during the period between the date that either you or we send the other a fully complete Notice, until the later of (1) 60 days after receipt of the Notice; or (2) if a Settlement Conference is timely requested, 30 days after completion of the Settlement Conference (the “Informal Resolution Period”). The parties agree that the existence or substance of any settlement discussions are confidential and shall not be disclosed, except as provided by applicable law.

c. Enforcement of Pre-Arbitration Requirements. The Notice and Informal Settlement Conference requirements are essential so that you and we have a meaningful chance to resolve disputes informally before proceeding to arbitration. A court will have authority to enforce this section 2, including the power to enjoin the filing or prosecution of an arbitration or the assessment of or demand for payment of fees in connection with an arbitration, if the party who intends to seek arbitration does not first provide a fully complete Notice and participate in a timely requested Informal Settlement Conference. In addition, unless prohibited by applicable law, the arbitration administrator shall not accept, assess or demand fees for, or administer an arbitration commenced during the Informal Resolution Period.

3. How Arbitration Works. Arbitration shall be conducted by the American Arbitration Association (“AAA”) pursuant to its Consumer Arbitration Rules or (if applicable) Commercial Arbitration Rules (“AAA Rules”), as modified by this Arbitration Agreement. The AAA Rules are available on AAA’s website www.adr.org. If AAA is unavailable or unwilling to administer the arbitration consistent with this Arbitration Agreement, the parties shall agree to, or the court shall select, another arbitration provider. Unless the parties agree otherwise, any arbitration hearing shall take place in the county of your principal place of business. The arbitrator will be either a retired judge or an attorney specifically licensed to practice law in the state of your principal place of business and selected by the parties from the arbitration provider’s national roster of arbitrators. The arbitrator will be selected using the following procedure: (1) the arbitration provider will send the parties a list of five candidates meeting this criteria; (2) if the parties cannot agree on an arbitrator from the list, each party shall return its list to the arbitration provider within 10 days, striking up to two candidates, and ranking the remaining candidates in order of preference; (3) the arbitration provider shall appoint as arbitrator the candidate with the highest aggregate ranking; and (4) if for any reason the appointment cannot be made according to this procedure, the arbitration provider will provide the parties a new list of five candidates meeting the above criteria until an appointment can be made.

4. Waiver of Right to Bring Class Action and Representative Claims. All arbitrations shall proceed on an individual basis. The arbitrator is empowered to resolve the dispute with the same remedies available in court, including compensatory, statutory, and punitive damages; attorneys’ fees; and declaratory, injunctive, and equitable relief. However, the arbitrator’s rulings or any relief granted must be individualized to you and shall not apply to or affect any other client. The arbitrator is also empowered to resolve the dispute with the same defenses available in court, including but not limited to statutes of limitation. You and the H&R Block Parties also agree that each may bring claims against the other in arbitration only in your or their respective individual capacities and in so doing you and the H&R Block Parties hereby waive the right to a trial by jury, to assert or participate in a class action lawsuit or class action arbitration, to assert or participate in a private attorney general lawsuit or private attorney general arbitration, and to assert or participate in any joint or consolidated lawsuit or joint or consolidated arbitration of any kind. If, after exhaustion of all appeals, a court decides that applicable law precludes enforcement of any of this section’s limitations as to a particular claim or any particular request for a remedy for a claim (such as a request for public injunctive relief), then the parties agree that the particular claim or the particular request for a remedy (and only that particular claim or particular request for a remedy) must remain in court and be severed from any arbitration. No arbitration shall proceed in any manner as a class action arbitration, private attorney general arbitration, or arbitration involving joint or consolidated claims, unless all parties consent in writing.

5. Arbitration Costs. Payment of all filing, administrative, case-management, arbitrator, and hearing fees will be governed by AAA Rules, but if you inform us that you cannot afford to pay your share of the fees, we will consider advancing those fees on your behalf and will do so if required by applicable law. In addition, we will reimburse you for your share of the fees at the conclusion of the arbitration (regardless of who wins) so long as (i) you complied with sections 2 and 4 above and section 6 below, and (ii) neither the substance of your claim nor the relief you sought was determined to be frivolous or brought for an improper purpose as measured by the standards set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11(b); otherwise, the payment of fees will be governed by AAA Rules and you agree to reimburse the H&R Block Parties for all fees advanced on your behalf.

6. Arbitration of Similar Claims. If 25 or more claimants submit Notices or seek to file arbitrations raising similar claims and are represented by the same or coordinated counsel (regardless of whether the cases are submitted simultaneously), all of the cases must be resolved in arbitration in stages using staged bellwether proceedings if they are not resolved during the Informal Resolution Period. You agree to this process even though it may delay the arbitration of your claim. In the first stage, each side shall select 10 cases (20 cases total) to be filed in arbitration and resolved individually by different arbitrators, with each case assigned to an arbitrator from the state of the claimant's principal place of business. In the meantime, no other cases may be filed in arbitration, and the AAA shall not accept, assess or demand fees for, or administer arbitrations that are commenced in violation of this section. The arbitrators are encouraged to resolve cases within 120 days of appointment or as swiftly as possible, consistent with principles of fundamental fairness. If the remaining cases are unable to be resolved after the conclusion of the first stage bellwether proceeding, each side shall select up to another 10 cases (20 cases total) to be filed in arbitration and resolved individually in accordance with this Arbitration Agreement. During this second stage, no other cases may be filed in arbitration. If any claims remain after the second stage, the process will be repeated until all claims are resolved through settlement or arbitration, with two alterations. First, a total of 50 cases may be filed each round (unless a higher number of cases is mutually agreed upon in writing). Second, arbitrators who were assigned cases in previous rounds may be appointed to new cases. If this section 6 applies to a Notice, the statute of limitations applicable to the claims and relief set forth in that Notice shall be tolled from the beginning date of the Informal Resolution Period until that Notice is selected for a bellwether proceeding, withdrawn, or otherwise resolved. A court will have authority to enforce this section 6, including to enjoin the filing, assessing or demanding fees for, administration of, or prosecution of arbitrations.

7. Other Terms. This Arbitration Agreement shall be governed by, and interpreted, construed, and enforced in accordance with, the Federal Arbitration Act and other applicable federal law. Except as set forth above in section 4, if any portion of this Arbitration Agreement is deemed invalid or unenforceable, it will not invalidate the remaining portions of the Arbitration Agreement. No arbitration award or decision will have any preclusive effect as to any issues or claims in any dispute, arbitration, or court proceeding where any party was not a named party in the arbitration, unless and except as required by applicable law.

THIS AGREEMENT CONTAINS A BINDING MUTUAL ARBITRATION AGREEMENT

The undersigned has the authority to sign on behalf of the taxpayer, acknowledges that the Privacy Notice was provided prior to service, and understands and voluntarily agrees on your behalf to the terms of the Arbitration Agreement described above, as well as all other terms, conditions and disclosures presented in this CSA.

Dear Applicant:

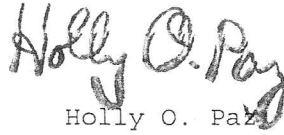

We are pleased to inform you that upon review of your application for tax exempt status we have determined that you are exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Contributions to you are deductible under section 170 of the Code. You are also qualified to receive tax deductible bequests, devises, transfers or gifts under section 2055, 2106 or 2522 of the Code.
