

*Habitat for Humanity
of Collin County
brings people together
to build homes,
communities, and hope.*

Presentation for MCDC

January 23, 2025

Shonda Schaefer, President & CEO

James Donaldson, Director of Construction

PROJECT RENDERING

35 FAMILIES

Habitat for Humanity of Collin County wants families in need of decent, affordable housing to become homeowners

AMENITY CENTER

Cotton Groves features a 2,600 sq. ft. amenity center which brings the community together and currently houses the Boys & Girls Club.

TOWNHOMES

Habitat for Humanity of Collin County is transforming a 2.75-acre strip of land into a 35-unit, affordable housing, town-home community.

PLAYGROUND

Cotton Groves children, as well as neighboring communities enjoy a beautiful accessible playground

Cotton Groves is an affordable housing community located in McKinney developed by Habitat for Humanity, City of McKinney and MCDC.

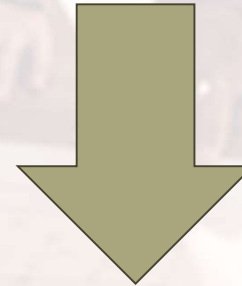

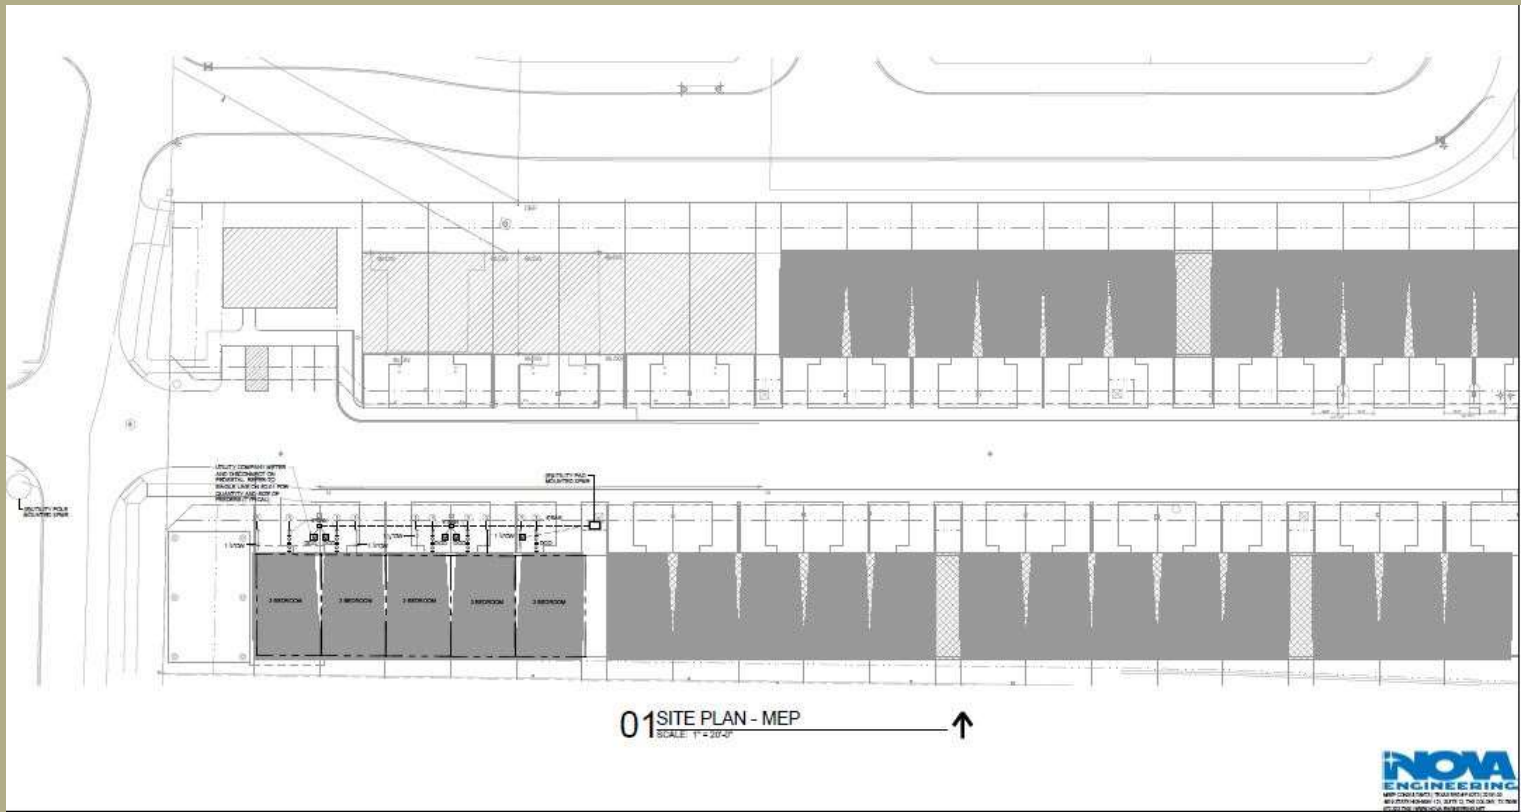

Journey from Shipping Containers

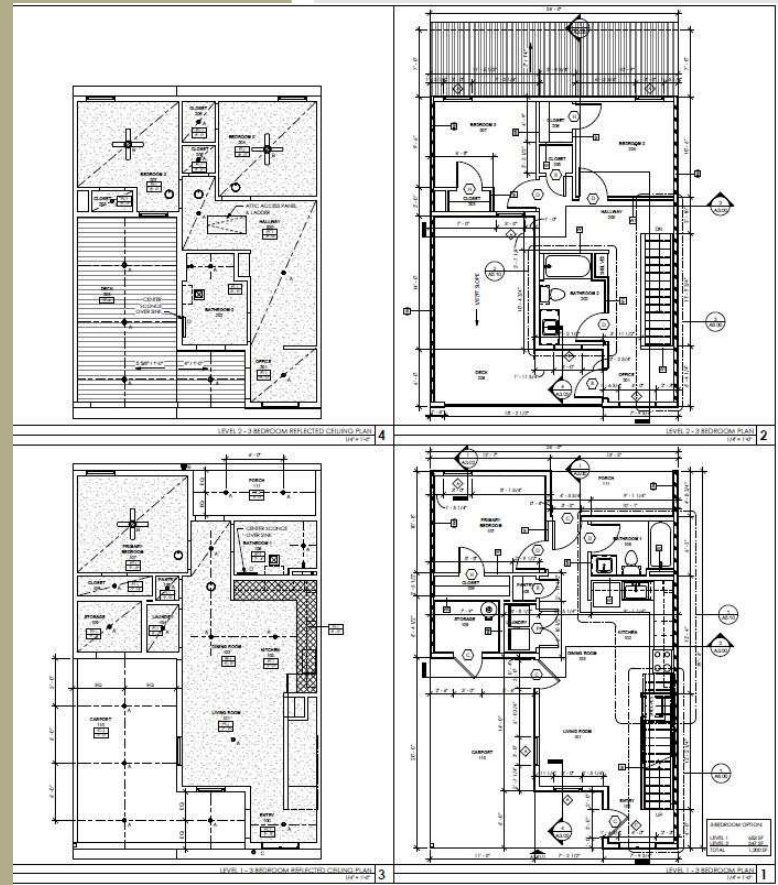

To

Traditional Wooden Structure

- Storage Containers Completed 2024
- Six families closed
- 5-Plex stands on original planned lots with minimal changes
- Second 5-Plex will begin upon 50% of completion (approx. 6 months)
- Complete 5-Plex in 12 months
- Additional 5-plex complete every six months after

The Request:

Two 5-Plex
Buildings = 10 units

Grading, Prep, Slab
Work, Contingency
and Admin

Total Project
$2,474,400

MCDC Request
$411,455 (17%)

Thank you!

Shonda Schaefer, President & CEO

sschaefer@habitatcctx.org

cell: 817.657.1017

James Donaldson, Director of Construction

jdonaldson@habitatcctx.org