

DIVISION 3. COMMUNITY GRANTS ADVISORY COMMISSION¹

Sec. 2-220. Creation; establishment.

The city council hereby changes the name of the CDBG advisory commission to the community grants advisory commission (hereinafter "CGAC"). CGAC is created for the purpose of advising the city council on CDBG and community support grant funding for the city and related matters. The CGAC shall be governed by the board and commissions guidelines and policies established by the city.

(Ord. No. 2013-10-092, § 1, 10-1-2013)

Sec. 2-221. Membership.

- (a) Composition. The CGAC shall consist of seven members appointed by the city council. The CGAC shall be demographically balanced with representatives from all parts of the city. Members of CGAC shall serve at the pleasure of the city council without compensation.
- (b) Removal from office. Any member may be removed from office by the city council at any time and for any cause deemed by the city council as sufficient for removal or for no cause. In the event of a vacancy, the city council shall appoint a member to serve for the unexpired term.
- (c) Qualifications. To be considered for service on the community grants advisory commission, a person must:
 - (1) Reside in the city limits of McKinney.
 - (2) Have knowledge of the community and matters pertaining to community development, including social services, housing assistance services and programs, city services and other programs designed to address the needs of the residents of McKinney.
 - (3) Not be a member, board member, employee or officer of any organization which has an application pending before the CGAC or which is a current recipient of CDBG funding (in the then current budget year). Any seated member shall not vote on any matter involving any organization of which he or she is a member, employee, board member or officer.
 - (4) Not be an elected or appointed official of any other local government.
 - (5) Have an interest in directing and promoting the city's growth by the use of CDBG and community support grant funds.
 - (6) Commit to attend all officially called commission meetings, requisite training and community outreach programs and events associated with CGAC.
 - (7) Commit to support and fulfill the duties and responsibilities of CGAC.

¹Editor's note(s)—Ord. No. 2013-10-092, § 1, adopted October 1, 2013, amended the Code by, in effect, repealing former div. 3, §§ 2-220—2-224, and adding a new div. 3. Former div. 3 pertained to similar subject matter, and derived from the Code of 1982, §§ 2-151—2-155; Ord. No. 2005-08-076, adopted August 1, 2005; and Ord. No. 2006-06-067, adopted June 6, 2006.

(Ord. No. 2013-10-092, § 1, 10-1-2013)

Sec. 2-222. Term of office.

CGAC members shall serve terms in accordance with the city council policy on board and commission member appointment and eligibility.

(Ord. No. 2013-10-092, § 1, 10-1-2013)

Sec. 2-223. Meetings.

The community grants advisory commission shall meet at least six times annually, on an on-call basis, or at such times as may be deemed necessary by CGAC for purposes of, but not limited to, developing work plans for the annual request for proposal process, receiving requisite training, attending community outreach programs, and performing all tasks necessary to fulfill its responsibilities.

(Ord. No. 2013-10-092, § 1, 10-1-2013)

Sec. 2-224. Attendance.

Attendance at the board meetings is required in accordance with the city council policy on board and commission member appointment and eligibility.

(Ord. No. 2013-10-092, § 1, 10-1-2013)

Sec. 2-225. Duties and responsibilities.

The community grants advisory commission shall have the following duties and responsibilities:

- (1) Serve in an advisory capacity to the city council in all matters pertaining to the use of United States Department of Housing and Urban Development ("HUD") CDBG funding for the city as well as city-funded community support grant money;
- (2) Assist city staff with review and management of the annual request for proposals process for organizations and agencies applying for CDBG and community support grant funds;
- (3) Advise and make recommendations to the city council on projects and activities eligible for CDBG and community support grant funding and participate in the CDBG and/or community support grant fund project selection process;
