- The city currently allows the sale of beer and wine for off-premises consumption only. The Ordinance must be amended to now include all alcoholic beverages as a result of the Special Local Option Alcohol Election of November 8, 2022.

- On January 18, 2022, the petition was returned to the city, and it was certified as valid on March 1, 2022, at which time the City Council ordered a special election to be held as required by law.
- The election of November 8, 2022 resulted in the approval of the measure with seventy-four (74%) percent support and twenty-six (26%) percent opposition.
